HELPFUL INFORMATION ON GETTING A CHANGE OF PARENTING TIME and CHILD SUPPORT

IMPORTANT INFORMATION. The following is important information on when you can legally ask the court for a change of parenting time and child support. Read it carefully before you fill out the Petition.

1. WHEN CAN YOU FILE FOR A CHANGE OF PARENTING TIME?

- There have been significant changes in circumstances that make a change in parenting time necessary for the good of the minor child(ren), OR
- There has been domestic violence, spousal abuse, or child abuse and you have evidence that the best interest of your minor child(ren) requires a change.
- There is reason to believe that the minor child(ren)'s current environment may seriously endanger the minor child(ren)'s physical, mental, moral or emotional health and your minor child(ren) is/are at risk.

IMPORTANT: If you have reason to believe that the other parent, or someone associated with the other parent, is physically abusing or hurting your minor child(ren), you should contact Child Protective Services or your local Police Department immediately. If your minor child is in a dangerous situation, you should take steps to file a “Petition to Modify Custody and/or Parenting Time and Child Support” to get a permanent change of custody and/or parenting time and child support, and a petition for Temporary Orders (of Custody or Parenting Time) Without Advance Notice to the Other Party (formerly known as an “emergency orders”) as soon as possible. All forms are available through the Law Library Resource Center.

2. THINGS TO CONSIDER BEFORE FILING A CHANGE OF PARENTING TIME:

- A. Filing for a change of parenting time is a serious matter and generally should be considered as a last resort. Raising the minor child(ren) in two households, arranging for parenting time, and making joint decisions about the minor child(ren)'s welfare can lead to high levels of stress, conflict, and anger between you and the other party, and the minor child(ren). Unless, your minor child(ren) is/are in immediate physical or emotional risk, you may want to seek counseling or mediation before you take legal action. Mediation is a process where you and the other parent meet with a professional who will try to help you work together to find a solution to your problem. The mediator is not there to take sides, but can help you understand the other parent's point of view. The mediator will help you approach your problems in a way that will more likely lead to an agreement and will help you to focus on your minor child(ren)'s needs first. Mediation services are available through the Conciliation Services department in the Superior Court, or through private mediation services. You may also want to consider family counseling to learn how to better deal with ongoing problems. A list of mediators and counselors is available through the Law Library Resource Center or you can contact Community Information and Referral Services at 2-1-1.
- B. To change parenting time and child support, you must convince the judge through appropriate evidence, that the best interests of the minor child(ren) requires the change. The judge usually will not make a change unless you can show that there is a substantial and continuing change of circumstances. What this means is that you must convince the judge that something has happened since the Decree or Order was signed that will be continuing. You must show that the change or situation has a substantial effect on the child(ren)'s well-being. Judges generally do not want to put the minor child(ren) through another serious change in surroundings, unless he/she is convinced it is necessary for the minor child(ren)'s welfare. In addition, if you have reasonable parenting time and the minor child(ren) is/are being neglected or abused during parenting time, then you may want to request that parenting time be supervised or consider asking for a change of custody.

There are many things the judge may look at in deciding "the best interest of the minor child(ren)." The law says that the court will look at issues such as:

- how the minor child(ren) relate(s) to parents, brothers and sisters;
- how the minor child(ren) is/are doing in school and socially;
- which parent is more likely to cooperate in giving parenting time to the other parent;
- which parent is better able mentally and physically to care for the minor child(ren);
- which parent has provided the primary care to the minor child(ren); and
- evidence of what a parent has done to convince the other parent to make a custody agreement.

The court will consider domestic violence against you, the minor child(ren), or another person in the minor child(ren)'s presence to be a serious consideration in deciding whether to change custody. Evidence of drug or alcohol abuse by either parent is also an important factor in a custody decision.

3. TIPS FOR FILING A CHANGE OF PARENTING TIME A change of parenting time has several special requirements that you should understand before you begin.

Tip #1: Whenever possible, try to solve your parenting time problems through counseling or mediation, unless your minor child(ren) is/are at immediate risk. If you don't try to solve your problems before you file, your chances of success will be reduced in court.

Tip #2: Be sure that the changes in circumstances that caused you to request the change of parenting time are important and related to issues of your minor child(ren)'s long term best interest. Be sure that if you are making allegations of abuse or neglect, that you have witnesses or evidence to back up your statements.

Tip #3: If your minor child(ren) has/have been seriously hurt or physically abused, contact the appropriate authorities and file a petition to "Petition to Modify" (Change) Custody and/or Parenting time along with a motion for "Temporary Modification of Custody or Parenting Time Without Advance Notice to the Other Party" (formerly known as an "emergency modification") to get the minor child(ren) out of the dangerous environment as soon as possible. These forms are available for purchase at the Law Library Resource Center or may be downloaded for free from the Law Library Resource Center's web site.

NOTE: The COURT may modify child support as appropriate after modification of parenting time.

Instructions for filling out the “Petition to modify parenting time and child support”

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: All court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, are in a domestic violence shelter, or if you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file a “Request for a Protected Address” and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that Order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. Just write “protected” when asked for this information and update the Clerk of Superior Court with an address and phone number as soon as possible.

Use this form only if you already have a court order concerning parenting time. You will need to have a copy of your current Order in front of you as you fill out these papers.

1. Type or print with black ink only.

In the top left corner of the first page, provide the information requested about YOU, the person filing this petition for modification. If your address is protected by court order, write “protected” the space for address and make sure the Court has a means of contacting you on file.

2. Fill in the top section where it says Name of Petitioner / Party A, Name of Respondent / Party B, Case Number and ATLAS Number (if there is one), exactly as it appears on your original Maricopa County Superior Court case where physical custody or parenting time/visitation was originally ordered.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

1. Information about Me (the person filing this petition for modification): Fill in your name, address (if not protected) and how you are related to the minor children.
2. Information about the Other Party: Fill in the other party’s name, address (if not protected) including city, state and zip code. Check the box to indicate if they are the mother, father, or other. If you are not one of the parties, list the information about the other parent under “Information about Other Parent of Other Party.”

Information about the Other Parent or Other Party: Leave blank if the two parents are the only parties to this case. If there is a non-parent party other than the person listed in (1), enter the information about that person. Check the box to indicate that person is “other” than the father or mother, and explain that person’s relationship to the minor child(ren) in the space provided. For example: Other: grandmother or guardian or sister (etc.)

3. Information about the minor children for whom I want the parenting time order changed: Provide the information requested on all the children under 18 years of age for whom you are seeking to make a change in parenting time and child support. If there are more than four minor children, check the box and attach a separate sheet titled the same as indicated on the Petition (and as shown above) listing the same information as requested in this section (name, date of birth and age) for each minor child.
4. Affidavit Regarding Minor Children. Check the box to indicate whether the minor children have resided in Arizona since the entry of the last Arizona court order. If not, you must check the second box, and include a completed “Affidavit Regarding Minor Children”, which is included in the #1 “Forms” packet for this procedure.

5. Information about the Order I want to change. Write in the date the Judge signed the Order, the name of the court (“Superior” or “District”, etc.), the name of the county, and the name of the state where the order was signed.

What your Order now says: This is where you tell the Judge what part of your decree / order you want to change. You should find your current decree/order, read it carefully several times and then decide what parts you want to change. Find the part you don’t agree with and then identify the order date, section and page you wish to change. Describe what you wish to change.

6. Domestic Violence. Tell the court whether “significant domestic violence” has occurred. If in your judgment it has, explain to the court.
7. Why the Decree/Order should be changed: This is where you briefly explain to the Judge why you think a change of your decree/order is necessary for the best interest of the minor child(ren). You are encouraged to be BRIEF and to keep your explanation within the space provided, but if you need more room, you may write “see attachment” on the Petition, title your extra page “Why the Decree/Order should be changed”, finish your explanation and attach the extra page to this Petition.

Requests I make to the Court: This is where you explain to the Judge what you want your decree/order on parenting time to say.

A. PARENTING TIME:

Mark one box only. You can ask that the non-custodial party (the party having physical custody of the minor child(ren) less than 50% of the time) or other non-party have one of the following types of parenting time (“visitation” if to non-parent):

- A. Reasonable Parenting Time--This suggests an amount of parenting time appropriate to the age of the child.
- B. Reasonable Parenting Time according to the attached “Parenting Plan” (or similarly detailed plan or agreement of the parties). Complete the “Parenting Plan” before you go to the Judge for your final order. The “Parenting Plan” is in the “Orders” packet.

Refer to “Planning for Parenting Time: Arizona’s Guide for Parents Living Apart” to help make your new parenting plan. The Guide is available for purchase at all Superior Court Law Library Resource Center locations, or may be viewed online and downloaded for free from the state courts’ web page.

- C. Supervised Parenting Time to the Non-Custodial Party (or Supervised “Visitation”, to Other [non-parent] Party). You should request supervised parenting time if the non-custodial parent or other party cannot adequately care for the minor child(ren) without another person present. You may request this if the person not having custody abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or, does not have the parenting skills to care for the minor child(ren) without another adult present. Remember, supervised parenting time is not intended to punish the party, but to protect the minor children.
- D. No Parenting Time to Other Party. You should mark the box for “No Parenting Time” to a party only if that party has seriously harmed, abused, or is otherwise a serious danger to the child(ren)’s physical and emotional health, or if there is a criminal court order stating there is to be no contact between the minor child(ren) and the non-custodial party. This is a last resort to protect the minor child(ren). Explain.

OR

No Parenting Time (visitation) to Other (non-party). Mark this box if there is a non-party, third party in this case and you do not want that person to have court-ordered visitation.

If there is a 3rd (third) party in addition to the parents in this case, use the second set of identical parenting time choices contained in this section to indicate who the remaining party is (Party A, Party B or Other party), and your preferences for the type of parenting time or visitation this person should have.

If you selected #3 or #4, you must write the reasons why parenting time (or visitation, if to non-party) should be supervised or why that person should have no parenting time or visitation at all.

NOTE: Even if you do not want to change the child support amount, the Judge will still review all the financial information to determine if child support should be changed.

- B. CHILD SUPPORT: Mark the box to indicate which party will pay child support. Fill in the amount from the completed "Child Support Worksheet", OR if you are requesting an amount different from the Worksheet amount (a deviation), enter that amount. FREE Child Support Calculators are available online to create Worksheet. See the instruction document DRS12h in this packet for more information.

If you are asking to modify Child Support, you may also be required to complete an "Affidavit of Financial Information" (AFI) especially if requesting to deviate from the amount listed on the Worksheet. The form is available in this packet if the Court orders you to complete it.

Title IV-D program or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) recipients NOTE: Mark the box if you or the other party are involved in the TANF or Title IV-D programs. In Part 4, you must obtain the written approval and signature of the Attorney General or county attorney assisting you on your TANF or IV-D case. You must include or attach the signature to the Final Decree BEFORE filing it. (Rule 45 (c) (3))

- C. MEDICAL, DENTAL, VISION CARE INSURANCE PAYMENTS AND EXPENSES: Mark which party should be responsible for health, medical, dental, and vision care insurance and other related expenses. Then write in what percentage Party A should pay and what percentage Party B should pay of those expenses not covered by insurance. The total percentage must be 100%.
- D. FEDERAL INCOME TAX DEDUCTION. Tell the court whether Party A or Party B should claim the minor children as income tax deductions.
- E. OTHER ORDERS: Fill in this information only if you have made other requests to the court. Write the specific additional orders you are requesting the court to make that were not covered elsewhere in your Petition. Use extra pages if necessary.
- F. OATH OR AFFIRMATION AND VERIFICATION: This document must be signed in front of a Deputy Clerk of Superior Court or Notary. By signing the Petition under Oath or Affirmation, you are stating, under penalty of perjury, that the information is true and correct.

WHAT TO DO NEXT: Follow the instructions in the document called "Procedures: What to do After You Have Completed the Petition to Change Parenting Time and Child Support".

3. A.R.S. § 25-401 defines two different types of legal decision-making. “Joint legal decision-making” means both parties share decision-making and neither party’s rights or responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parties in the final judgment or order. “Sole legal decision-making” means one party has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child. In this case, the Court has awarded joint legal decision-making to the parties.
4. It furthers the best interests of the minor child(ren) for this Court to enter the following school-specific order that reflects relevant provisions under the Parenting Plan. This order serves to supplement, but not modify or replace, the provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan. If there is a conflict between this order and the current Parenting Plan, the Parenting Plan controls. For purposes of this order, the terms apply equally to schools, pre-schools, and institutional childcare providers.
5. This order is binding upon the parties, who are responsible for complying with its terms and the terms in the Parenting Plan. It is not binding on a school but is provided as guidance for the child(ren)’s schools.

Based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Delivery to School.

The parties are required to provide a copy of this order to the minor child(ren)’s school(s).

2. Joint Legal Decision-making.

The parties have been awarded joint legal decision-making. As it relates to this Education Order, legal decisions include school selection, enrollment/withdrawal, and special services (IEP/504 Plans). In the event the parties cannot agree (select appropriate box):

Joint Decision-making: Neither party is entitled to any greater decision-making authority. No change can be made, nor any action taken, unless the parties agree or a court order resolves the issue.

Joint Decision-making with a party having either “Final” or “Presumptive” Authority: Subject to the terms set forth in the Parenting Plan, decisions will be made by (indicate which party has “presumptive” or “final” authority):

Petitioner/Party A Respondent /Party B

3. School Selection.

Enrollment of the minor child(ren) in a particular school is subject to the school's policies or rules, space availability, enrollment restrictions set by the school or school district or its authorizer (if a charter school), and state law. A party may submit enrollment documentation to the school of choice solely for the purpose of reserving the minor child(ren)'s place at the school. Neither party is restricted from selecting their preference of school for open enrollment purposes.

4. Special Services.

If the minor child(ren) is/are eligible for or being considered for a 504 Plan, an Individualized Education Program (IEP), an Individualized Service Plan (ISP), or other special services:

- An evaluation as to the minor child(ren)'s eligibility for special services shall proceed so long as at least one party consents.
- Both parties are entitled to attend all meetings with school officials that parents are permitted to attend.
- Both parties are authorized to have access to all special services records and testing results.
- Upon completion of any evaluation or assessments, if there is no agreement between the parties regarding the provision of special education and related special services, the decision of how to proceed must be decided in accordance with the legal decision-making orders of the court.

5. Parenting Time and Child Pick-Up.

The school should not use the parenting schedule as a basis to deny either party access to their minor child(ren), nor may either party instruct the school to limit contact, unless otherwise ordered. Each party may pick up the minor child(ren) from school and each may authorize other individuals to pick up the minor child(ren), unless there are limitations under the terms of the current Parenting Plan or another court order.

6. Contact Information.

Each party's home address, e-mail, cell phone and any other contact information must be provided to the school and listed by the school as the contact information for the minor child(ren). Additional emergency contacts may be listed, but in the event of a dispute between the parties, the school must list any person requested by either party until the parties reach an agreement or secure a court order to the contrary. In the event of an emergency, either party may make decisions for the minor child(ren)'s immediate care.

7. Access to School Grounds.

Subject to the policies of the school, or any provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan or other order of the court, there are no restrictions on either party's right to participate in school activities or events, or engage in any parent volunteer activities, that parents are generally permitted to participate in.

8. Access to School Records and Parent Portal.

Both parties are entitled to equal access to the minor child(ren)'s school records. Neither party may restrict the other party's access to information. Further, each party is individually responsible for contacting the school and requesting to be included on any mailing or distribution list.

Both parties are entitled to access the school's student information system or online parent portal(s) (e.g., ParentVUE, Google Classroom, Infinite Campus, etc.). Unless the school allows each party to have an individual login account, the parties must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other party.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parties has equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parties may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.

Unless the school allows each party to have an individual login account, the parties must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other party.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parties has the equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parties may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.
