

Probate Investigations Report Line

What is the purpose of the Probate Investigations Report Line?

The purpose of the Report Line is to provide citizens with a way to report instances of abuse and exploitation of adult wards, who are under the care of a court appointed guardian or conservator. It encourages citizens to report concerns directly to the Probate Investigations Office. This allows all reports to be reviewed and serves to safeguard vulnerable adults against abuse and/or exploitation.

Do you know someone who has a guardian and/or conservator and is being abused or exploited?

Do you want the physical care they are receiving, or their financial records, investigated?

If your answer is yes, call the Probate Investigations Monitor Report Line 602-506-6730.

Or, you can send an email to ProbateInv@superiorcourt.maricopa.gov

How does the Report Line work?

When you call into the Report Line you will be asked for your contact information and a statement about the abuse and/or exploitation you are reporting. If you are sending an email, include your name, contact information, and a brief outline of your concerns. The Probate Investigations Supervisor will review the details of your concerns. If not immediately addressed, all reports will be responded to within one business day. If necessary the Commissioner assigned to the case will be notified. If warranted an investigation will be launched.

The Report Line:

- Helps to ensure adults who are vulnerable are protected.
- Is a number you can call to report suspected abuse or exploitation of any adult ward.
- All reports are reviewed by the Probate Investigations Supervisor.
- Investigations are undertaken by a trained Court Investigator.
- The Probate Court is open Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., and closed weekends and holidays, however, you can leave a message at any time and you will receive a response within one business day.
- Or, you can send an email to ProbateInv@superiorcourt.maricopa.gov
