Instructions: how to fill out the court order for Parenting time

The Order is the legal document that is the Judge's order on the court lawsuit. The signed Order is important because it determines the rights and responsibilities of both you and the opposing party. If either party does not follow the Order, then the other can ask the court for help in enforcing the terms of the Order.

This order is designed for parties who want to get a court order for Parenting Time. You cannot use this form to establish paternity, Legal Decision-Making (legal custody), or child support. Use this form only if you are the natural or adoptive parent of the child(ren) AND

- You already have a court order establishing paternity, OR
- You have a court order for child support.

If you want a court order for Parenting Time, the Court will also want to review the current child support order. If there is no order, the Court will establish child support in this case or, if the child support order needs to be changed, the Court will do so in this case.

WHEN FILLING OUT ANY COURT FORMS, TYPE OR PRINT WITH BLACK INK ONLY!

IMPORTANT REMINDER!!

Your Order should repeat as closely as possible what you requested in your Petition, unless the opposing party has provided written consent to any changes. You cannot mark something different in the order from what you asked for in the petition, unless the change clearly benefits the opposing party. If you try to do this, the Judge or Commissioner will not sign the order. If you want to change your requests to the Court, you must file and serve an amended petition. It is a good idea to have your petition handy when you fill out the Order.

The Court Findings:

1. This states that the Court has all information necessary to enter a Judgment and Order.
2. This states that this court is able to make the Orders relating to you and the opposing party.
3. This states that the Court will make only those Orders that are legally proper under the circumstances of your case.
4. Print or type the full name of the Petitioner/Party A and the Respondent/Party B in the spaces provided, then put the name of the child(ren) for whom Parenting Time/support is established and their date(s) of birth.
5. If you are asking for supervised or no Parenting Time for the other party, you must have a very good reason. Write that reason in here.

The Judgment and Order: “It Is Ordered That . . . “

1. Complete the Parenting Time plan here. Use the Petition as your guide -- you cannot write in something you did not ask for in the Petition, unless the other party agrees.
2. If you are asking for supervised Parenting Time, explain why.
3. If you want supervised Parenting Time, write in all the details about how that will be handled.
4. If there is any other order you want, write it in.

If you are asking for a default hearing:

1. Family Department Administration must review your papers before you are granted a hearing.
 - A. You may email your original documents to Family Department Administration at: DefaultReview@jbazmc.maricopa.gov or if you are unable to email the documents, you may submit them to the department in person at any Superior Court location. The documents to provide include:
 1. Order for Parenting Time
 2. Current child support order.
 3. Parenting Plan
 4. If applicable (required prior to January 1, 2025): Education Order (Choose only one: Sole Education Order or Joint Education Order. The Education Order you choose must match the type of legal decision-making you are asking for in your Parenting Plan.)
 5. Fee receipt (if applicable), or a copy of the Order Regarding Deferral or Waiver of Court Fees and Costs (if applicable)
 - B. Be sure to also provide Family Department Administration with:
 1. Income information or wage paystubs for both parties.
 2. Information about costs for children’s day care, medical insurance, special needs, etc.
 3. Be sure your certification of attendance at a Parent Information Program class has been filed.
 - C. Family Department Administration will review the forms to see if you are ready to proceed to a default hearing.
 - If you present your forms in person, Family Department Administration may review the forms while you are present.
 - If you email your forms or the Family Department Administration is not able to review them with you present, they will review them within 3 business days of receipt.
 - After the review, they will contact you by phone.

If your forms are hearing-ready, the Family Department Administration will schedule a default hearing and provide any further instructions. If there are issues with your documents, the Family Department Administration will provide you information about what to fix. You will then need to resubmit your corrected documents.

Hearings are usually by video. Do not be late for your hearing. If you are late, your hearing will be rescheduled to a different day.

Judge's signature, and copy for other party:

You do not have a valid court order until the Judge signs and dates the original order, which will occur at or after the default hearing on the case. Be sure to get a certified copy of the signed order for your records. Also, if the other party does not have a copy, mail a copy of the signed and dated order to them.

PARENTING PLAN INFORMATION

A.R.S. § 25-401 defines legal decision-making and parenting time as follows:

1. "Legal Decision-Making" means the legal right and responsibility to make all nonemergency legal decisions for a child including those regarding education, health care, religious training and personal care decisions.
2. "Joint Legal Decision-Making" means both parents share decision-making and neither parent's rights nor responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the Court or the parents in the final judgment or order.

PARENTS PLEASE NOTE: Per A.R.S. § 25-403.09, an award of joint legal decision-making or a substantially equal parenting time plan does not diminish the responsibility of either parent to provide for the support of the child. Also note that joint legal decision-making does not necessarily mean equal parenting time. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(E)

3. "Sole Legal Decision-Making" means one parent has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child.
4. "Parenting Time" means the schedule of time during which each parent has access to a child at specified times. Each parent during their scheduled parenting time is responsible for providing the child with food, clothing and shelter and may make routine decisions concerning the child's care.

You may view the "Parenting Time Guidelines" online at the Arizona Supreme Court's website.

Drafting a Parenting Plan:

The written parenting plan pays attention to how the parents will make decisions pertaining to the child(ren)'s education, health care, religious training, and personal care; it is a blend of specific information with generalized plans of action. It should reflect what the parents are currently doing or what they actually plan to do. It should reflect a commitment to the minor child(ren)'s needs as predominant.

If the parents cannot agree on a plan for legal decision-making or parenting time, each parent must submit a proposed parenting plan. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(A)

In order for the Court to approve a parenting plan, A.R.S. § 25-403.02 requires the Court to make the following findings:

- a. The best interests of the minor child(ren) are served;
- b. The plan designates legal decision-making as joint or sole;
- c. The plan sets forth each parent's rights and responsibilities for the personal care of the minor child(ren) and for decisions in areas such as education, health care, and religious training;
- d. The plan provides a practical schedule of parenting time for the child, including holidays and school vacations;

- e. The plan includes a procedure for exchanges of the child, including location and responsibility for transportation;
- f. The plan includes a procedure by which proposed changes, disputes and alleged breaches may be mediated or resolved, which may include the use of Conciliation Services or private counseling;
- g. The plan includes a procedure for periodic review (e.g., parents agree to review the terms of the agreement every 12 months.);
- h. The plan includes a procedure for communicating with each other about the child, including methods and frequency;
- i. The plan includes a statement that each party has read, understands, and will abide by the notification requirements of A.R.S. § 25-403.05(B). (A parent must immediately notify the other parent if the parent knows that a convicted/registered sex offender or a person who has been convicted of a dangerous crime against children may have access to the child. Notice must be provided (i) by first class mail, return receipt requested, (ii) by electronic means to an e-mail address the recipient provided to the parent for notification purposes, or (iii) by other communication accepted by the Court.)

The following questions may be used as a starting place when drafting a parenting plan:

1. The geographical location of the parents: Where do parents live relative to one another? What are their addresses? Permanent or temporary?
2. Arrangements regarding the residential requirements of the minor child(ren): How much time will the minor child(ren) spend with each parent? Be as specific as possible, including days and times.
3. Arrangements for holidays and vacations: What are your plans for summer vacation and school breaks? List specific details including dates and times.
4. Arrangements for education: How will decisions be made for educational matters? For example, if preschool age, what school will the minor child(ren) attend? If private school, who pays what?
5. Additional transportation arrangements: Will any additional transportation arrangements be needed? If so, what will be the responsibilities of each parent?
6. Determinations regarding minor child(ren)'s health care: For example, how will medical decisions be made? Who will provide insurance? How are non-insured expenses paid? Who decides on seeking non-emergency treatment? Is there a dental plan? If not, who will pay what?
7. Arrangements regarding extraordinary expenses: For example, what financial arrangements are made for the minor child(ren) (such as each sharing extraordinary expenditures and the parent with whom the minor child(ren) resides bearing the ordinary ones during the minor child(ren)'s residency)? A fixed amount per month?
8. Arrangements for minor child(ren)'s religious training, if any: For example, how will decisions be made for religious training? What, if any, are the plans for religious training?
9. Any other factors: What other arrangements (such as music lessons, sports/activity fees, camp or Scouts) are needed?
