How to complete a Spousal Maintenance Worksheet (Applies only to cases in which the original petition for dissolution or legal separation was filed on or after September 24, 2022)

In a dissolution of marriage (divorce) or legal separation, one party may request that the court order the other party to pay “spousal maintenance.” This is financial support paid by one party to the other party. The court considers certain statutory factors to decide whether a party is eligible for spousal maintenance. In these cases, either party may request that the other pay spousal maintenance.

Spousal Maintenance Guidelines:

For a case filed on or after September 24, 2022, if a person is eligible for spousal maintenance, then the court uses the Arizona Spousal Maintenance Guidelines to determine the amount and duration of the award for spousal maintenance.

The Guidelines can be found here:

<https://www.azcourts.gov/familylaw/Child-Support-Family-Law-Information/Spousal-Maintenance-Guidelines>.

Spousal Maintenance Calculator:

In any dissolution of marriage or legal separation case that was originally filed on or after September 24, 2022, when a party requests spousal maintenance, or requests to change a past spousal maintenance court order, a completed Spousal Maintenance Worksheet must be included under the following situations.

- When filing an Application for Entry of a Default Decree and the party seeking default proceeds by motion without a hearing (Rule 44.1, ARFLP)
- When the parties agree to spousal maintenance and are submitting either a Summary Consent Decree or Consent Decree for Court approval (Rules 45 and 45.1, ARFLP).

The worksheet is created using the FREE online Spousal Maintenance Calculator. Access to the internet is required. The online Spousal Maintenance Calculator can be found here:

<https://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/app/selfsuffcalc/>.

If you do not have access to the internet and/or a printer, you may use the computers at any Law Library Resource Center location. There is a small, per-page charge for printing.

Next Steps:

After completing the Spousal Maintenance Calculator, print out the Spousal Maintenance Worksheet in order to file it with your other paperwork.

When you have completed all necessary forms, go to the “Procedures” page and follow the steps.

Instructions and procedures to submit the default decree for legal separation without minor children

Information about the Separation Decree

- What the Decree Means to You. The Decree is the Court Order that legally separates you and your spouse. You cannot get married to another person if you only have a decree of legal separation.
- Getting a Legal Separation Decree. Before you and your spouse become legally separated, a judge or commissioner must sign what we call the Decree of Legal Separation. The Decree tells you who gets the property, who pays the debts, who pays support, and so forth.
- Failure to do what the Decree tells you to do could get you into trouble with the Court. This does not mean that the court will police whether you are following the Decree. It does mean you or your spouse can request a Contempt Order or an Order to enforce parts of the Decree if you or your spouse fail to do what the Decree tells you to do.
- Legal Separation by Default. If you are seeking a Default Decree, you must repeat as closely as possible what you requested in your Petition for Legal Separation. You cannot mark something different in the Decree from what you asked for in the Petition. If you try to do this, the judge or commissioner will not sign the Decree. If you want to change your requests to the court, you must file an amended Petition. It is a good idea to have your Petition handy when you follow the instructions to fill out your Decree.
- The Decree. Instructions for completion:
  - When filling out any court forms, type or print with black ink only.
  - Do not fill in the spaces allocated for the judge's signature and date.
  - If the judge disagrees with anything you have written, they may change it before signing the Decree or they may ask the parties to come to a hearing.
  - If you are seeking a Default Decree, you must also promise to mail a copy of the Decree to the other party after the judge has signed it.
- Complete the Spousal Maintenance Worksheet, if applicable:
  - ✓ Use the free online spousal maintenance calculator at the following website to complete a spousal maintenance worksheet:

<https://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/app/selfsuffcalc/>

- ✓ After completing the worksheet, print it out and submit it with your papers.

If you are asking for a Default Decree with a hearing:

- You must first submit your papers (Decree and Spousal Maintenance Worksheet) for review to Family Department Administration before you are granted a Default Hearing. You may email your original documents to DefaultReview@jbazmc.maricopa.gov. If you are unable to email your papers, you may submit your papers in person at any Superior Court location.
- Family Department Administration will review the forms to see if you are ready to proceed to a hearing.
  - If you present your documents in person, they may review while you are present.
  - If you email your documents or the Family Department Administration is not able to review them with you present, they will review them within 3 business days of receipt.
  - After the review, they will contact you by phone.
- If your documents are hearing-ready, the Family Department Administration will schedule a Default Hearing and provide any further instructions.
  - However, if there are issues with your documents, the Family Department Administration will provide you information about what to fix. You will then need to resubmit your corrected documents to Family Department Administration before your hearing will be scheduled.
- The Default Hearing
  - Will be set by Family Department Administration at least 60 days from the date the responding party was served the divorce or legal separation papers. (A.R.S. § 25-329)
  - Hearings are usually by video. Do not be late for your hearing. If you are late, your hearing will be rescheduled to a different day.

If you are using the default process and you wish to proceed without a hearing, see the instructions, procedures, and forms also in this packet.

Instructions and Procedures for a Default Decree by Motion, without a Hearing

Requirements

Sometimes a court hearing is not required to get a default decree. If you meet the following requirements, you may use this “no hearing” process to request a default decree:

- ✓ All parties must be legally competent and sane.
- ✓ The Summons and Petition were served to the other party, other than by publication.
- ✓ The Petition requests to the Court are the same as the requests proposed in the default order.

This means, you cannot use this process if . . .

- the responding party was served by publication,
- if the other party is insane or incompetent, or
- if the other party has filed a response, or made an appearance in the cases, or
- the requests to the Court in the proposed default order are not the same as those requested in the Petition.

You must have already filed and mailed to the other party an Application and Affidavit for Default. Also, it must be at least ten (10) court (business) days since you filed and mailed the Application.

If you filed for divorce or legal separation, it must also have been at least 60 calendar days since service of the Summons and Petition was completed.

Instructions

Complete the Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing.

1. Complete the top part of the page with your personal information, name of parties, and case number.
2. On the upper page right, mark the box that describes the kind of court order you are requesting (i.e., divorce, annulment, etc.).
3. SECTION A:
  - Read the information carefully.
  - Mark the boxes in front of the statements that are true.

4. SECTION B: (To be completed only by parties seeking a decree of dissolution, legal separation, or annulment)

- Mark the boxes that best apply to your situation.
- Note: Attachments. If you marked a box next to a statement that requires an “attachment,” be sure to attach the required document at the end of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. If you are missing an attachment or any required document, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

5. SECTION C: (To be completed only by parties seeking a judgment of paternity/maternity, and/or legal decision-making, parenting time or child support.)

- Mark the boxes that best apply to your situation.
- If the statement next to the box asks for an explanation, write it clearly in black ink.
- Note: Attachments. If you marked a box next to a statement that requires an “attachment,” be sure to attach the required document at the end of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. If you are missing an attachment or any required document, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

6. SECTION D: To be completed if it applies to you.

Note: Attachments. If you marked a box next to a statement that requires an “attachment,” be sure to attach the required document at the end of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. If you are missing an attachment or any required document, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

7. OATH or Affirmation: Sign and date this in front of the Clerk of Superior Court or Notary, with a picture identification.

8. Copy: Make three (3) copies of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. (Make additional copy if the Arizona Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) is involved in your case.)

After completing instructions above, you are ready to complete the Decree/Judgment/Order, also in this packet.

Before you request a Default Decree by Motion without a Hearing, CHECK TO BE SURE THAT YOU:

- Properly served the Petition, Summons and other papers to other party and filed the proof of service. (Service cannot be done by publication if you are using this method (without a hearing)); AND
- Completed and filed the Application and Affidavit for Default, with all the required attachments and mailed a copy to the other party; AND
- If the other party is on active duty in the United State Military, you completed and notarized Service Member Civil Relief Act Waiver; AND
- Waited at least 61 days after the completion of service, if you filed for divorce or legal separation.

Complete the Default Decree/Judgment/Order.

1. See the instructions in this packet to complete the Default Decree/Judgment/Order.
2. If children are involved, there will be additional forms to complete, such as a Parenting Plan, Education Order (if applicable), Child Support Worksheet, Child Support Order, and Current Employer Information Sheet. See additional instructions in this packet.
3. Copy:
  - Make two (2) copies of the original Decree/Judgment/Order, plus attachments and any additional required forms. (Make additional copy if DCSS is involved in your case.)
  - Note: If you are missing an attachment or any required form, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

If you will eFile your forms, you may not need as many paper copies. You will need a paper set of the filed forms to serve on the other party, Division of Child Support Services if they are involved in your case, and one for your judge or Family Administration (when required). - In some cases, the Judge may set a hearing. The court will send you notice of the hearing date and time.

Common reasons why your paperwork may be rejected:

- Incomplete: The Decree/Judgment/Order was not fully completed.
  - Not all applicable boxes were marked.
  - An explanation(s) was missing.
  - An attachment(s) was missing.
- Different Requests: Items asked for in the Decree/Judgment/Order were not the same as the items asked for in the Petition.
- Missing Documents: The original Decree/Judgment/Order and copies were not submitted with the Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without Hearing.
- Overlooked True Statements: You did not mark all boxes on the Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without Hearing as true statements.
- No notarized Waiver: Did not provide a notarized Service Members Civil Relief Act Waiver, if required.

Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure (ARFLP), Rule 44.1, allows for application for a default decree without hearing in Family cases for divorce, legal separation, annulment, maternity or paternity, money judgments, attorney fees, and spousal maintenance, but be WARNED:

- There are special legal requirements involved in qualifying for an annulment, and a default decree with no hearing.
- If your court papers do not fully explain how you meet those requirements, it could result in your case being delayed or dismissed.

Consulting an experienced attorney about whether your situation and your papers indicate you qualify for an annulment or a default decree, may help you to avoid unnecessary expense, delay, and disappointment.

Name of Respondent / Party B

I am the Petitioner / Party A and I am asking the Court to enter a “Decree” of Dissolution of Marriage, “Legal Separation,” “Annulment,” or “Maternity/Paternity,” or an “Order” establishing legal-decision-making by default without a court hearing.

SECTION A:

I have marked each box in front of the statements below that are true and I understand that if any statement is not true, I cannot get a default decree without a hearing.

- I have read this “Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Court Hearing” and to the best of my knowledge everything I said is true.
- I have paid the filing and service fees or the filing and service fees were waived or deferred. A copy of the receipt showing payment or a copy of the Order showing that the fees were waived or deferred is attached.
- To the best of my knowledge, both Party A and Party B are competent and sane at this time (even if “legal incompetence” or “insanity” at the time of the marriage is listed as a ground for an annulment).

- At least 60 days have passed since the other Party (Respondent) was served with the dissolution, legal separation, or annulment papers. OR my case is to establish maternity/paternity and/or legal decision-making / parenting time / child support and there is no 60 day waiting period.
- Service was not done by publication.

- At the time this action was filed, Party A or Party B was domiciled in Arizona or was stationed in Arizona while a member of the United States Armed Forces. If this is an action for dissolution of marriage (divorce) or annulment, Party A or Party B was domiciled or stationed in Arizona for more than 90 days, at the time the Petition was filed.
- My case does not involve a member of the military waiving service OR - I have submitted a notarized “Service Members Civil Relief Act Waiver” completed by the other party.
