SELECTED ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS ON COURT SECURITY

Opinions of the Illinois Attorney General, Opinion 96-017 (March 4, 1996). (Only deputy sheriffs can be employed as courthouse security personnel if such personnel will be authorized to carry weapons and have the authority to make arrests).

Opinions of the Mississippi Attorney General, Opinion 2008-00382 (August 15, 2008). (Sheriff is responsible for the security of the courthouse at all times, including the courtroom, ... regardless of whether a constable is serving as bailiff in the courtroom. An individual may hold the office of constable and county deputy sheriff simultaneously.)

Opinions of the Tennessee Attorney General, Opinion 07-148 (October 22, 2007) ("Prohibits the holders of valid handgun carry permits that are issued ... from carrying their handguns into any room where judicial proceedings are being conducted." "There is nothing in the language of .... that requires the posting of notices...")

Opinions of the Tennessee Attorney General, Opinion 10-77 (June 1, 2010). (Sheriff for each county is required to furnish court officers for the county's courts and deputy sheriffs are required to be certified as peace officers by the Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission.)

Opinions of the Texas Attorney General, Letter Opinion No. 98-026 (March 26, 1998). (Whether the Colorado County Commissioners Court may contract with the county attorney's office to provide courthouse security, and related questions).

Opinions of the Virginia Attorney General (October 16, 1998). (Culpeper County Board of Supervisors has no authority to contract for hiring of private security personnel for provision of courthouse security. Evaluation of courtroom security needs is joint responsibility of sheriffs and chief judges in individual jurisdictions, considering available budget and personnel).
