Instructions: How to complete an Agreement to Modify Legal Decision-making, Parenting Time, and Child Support

Step 1: Determine whether this court has the authority to hear your case. Either party or children of the parties must live in Maricopa County to file for modification in this county:

If the court Order you want to change is from Maricopa County, Arizona:

- Use your copy of the Order. You will need it to fill out the paperwork.

If the court Order you want to change is from another county in Arizona:

- Get a certified copy of the Order you want to change from the other county, and
- Bring the certified copy with you when you come to the Clerk of Superior Court to file your court papers, and
- Give the certified copy of the Order to the Clerk before filing any additional paperwork, and
- The Clerk will file the Order and assign a case number to your new case.

If the court order you want to change is from a state other than Arizona:

- Talk to a lawyer who can tell you what requirements are necessary for you to file for modification in Arizona.

Step 2: Important definitions to help you in your decision to change legal decision-making and parenting time.

- “Sole Legal Decision-making” means the one person has legal decision-making authority.
- “Joint Legal Decision-making” means both parties share legal decision-making.
- “Parenting time” means a parent has the right to have a minor child physically placed with the parent and the right and responsibility to make, during that placement, routine daily decisions regarding the minor child’s care consistent with the major decisions made by the person having legal decision-making.

- “Custody” usually refers to legal decision-making and used to be called legal custody.

Step 3: Complete the forms in this packet if both parties agree to ask the court to modify or change an existing court Order for legal decision-making, parenting time and child support.

- Have in front of you a copy of the current Parenting Plan (if you have one), legal decision-making and parenting time order, and Child Support Order. You will need to look at these documents to complete all the paperwork now.
- Important: If you want to modify legal decision-making, you must also consider whether it will be necessary to modify child support and/or parenting time. You will need all the documents that are required to modify the child support order and the parenting time order.
- Complete the required forms:
 1. Agreement (or Stipulation) to Modify the Prior Court Order Regarding Legal Decision-making, Parenting Time and Child Support, and
 2. Order Modifying Legal Decision-making, Parenting Time and Child Support, and
 3. Parenting Plan, and
 4. Child Support Worksheet,
 5. Child Support Order, and
 6. Current Employer Information Sheet (if applicable), and
 7. Order Stopping Income Withholding Order (if applicable).
- Use the “Parenting Time Guidelines” to help you make your new Parenting Plan.
- If you want to modify or change legal decision-making and/or parenting time, you must also consider whether it will be necessary to modify or change child support.

Use the free online child support calculator to produce the Child Support Worksheet, Child Support Order, and Current Employer Information Sheet that must be turned in along with your other court papers. This calculator is available at:

ezCourtForms <https://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/ezcourtforms2/>

If you are changing parenting time and therefore changing child support, you might need to stop a current wage withholding order and have a new income withholding order issued, depending on which parent will now pay support. These forms are available at the Law Library Resource Center and online at the Law Library

Resource Center website.

- Remember that the court must do what is in the best interests of the minor children. Even if both parties agree to legal decision-making, parenting time and support, the judge will look over all the papers and decide what Order to make.
- Print clearly and use black ink when completing forms.
- The Current Employer Information Sheet is required whenever child support is ordered.
- An Order stopping an income withholding order is required if this modification changes which party is ordered to pay child support.

Once you have completed your forms, see: Procedures: How to file your Agreement to Modify Legal Decision-making, Parenting Time and Child Support.

ORDER MODIFYING LEGAL DECISION- MAKING (LEGAL CUSTODY), PARENTING TIME AND CHILD SUPPORT

Name of Respondent/Party B (in original case)

The COURT FINDS:

1. This case has come before this Court for a final Order based upon the agreement of the parties.
2. This Court has jurisdiction to change legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, and support, and has jurisdiction over the parties. Where it has the legal power to do so and where it is applicable to the facts of this case, this Court has considered, approved, and made Orders relating to legal decision-making, parenting time and support.

3. This Order applies to the following children:

Names	Birth date / Age
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

4. Grounds for changing legal decision-making and parenting time. Based upon the stipulation (agreement) of the parties, it is in the best interest of the child(ren) to change legal custody and parenting time at this time.

5. Joint legal decision-making cases only. Domestic Violence.
(If requesting joint legal decision-making, this statement must be true (ARS § 25-403.03). Check box if a true statement.)

There has been no domestic violence, or no significant domestic violence.

The COURT ORDERS:

1. The Order regarding legal decision-making, parenting time and support dated _____ is changed as follows:

A. Legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time.

Joint Legal Decision-making. Party A and Party B agree to act as joint legal decision-makers of the minor child(ren) with parenting time and physical legal custody as set forth in the Joint Legal Decision-making Agreement and Parenting Plan pursuant to A.R.S. Section § 25-403, signed by both parties and attached to and made a part of this Order. There have been no significant acts of Domestic Violence under A.R.S. § 13-3601 by either parent. The Court adopts the agreed terms of the Joint Legal Decision-making Agreement. Or

Sole Legal Decision-making. Party A is awarded sole legal decision-making and physical legal custody of _____;

Party B is awarded sole legal decision-making and physical legal custody of _____, as described in the parenting time schedule in the attached Parenting Plan signed by both parties.

B. Child support. Party A or Party B shall pay child support to the other party in the amount of $ _____ per month payable on the first day of each month, beginning the first day of the month following the signing of this Order. Child support is based on Exhibit 1 attached hereto and incorporated by reference. All child support payments shall be made through the Clerk of Superior Court/ Clearinghouse, plus an applicable statutory fee by Order of Assignment.

Child support deviation. The Court, having considered the best interests of the child(ren), deviates from the guidelines for the following reasons. (Describe reasons.)

C. Medical and dental insurance, vision, payments and expenses.

Party A is responsible for providing: medical dental vision care insurance.

Party B is responsible for providing: medical dental vision care insurance.

The costs of medical/dental/vision care expenses not paid by insurance shall be shared as follows: Party A _____ % Party B _____%.

Even though the Court's judgment contains orders regarding medical insurance and the allocation of the right to claim the child as a dependent for the purposes of federal taxes, these orders are not binding on the IRS. Under the Affordable Care Act, the parent who claims a child as a dependent on a federal tax return has the obligation to ensure that the child is covered by medical insurance and may be penalized by the IRS for failing to do so. This penalty may be imposed even if it is the other parent's responsibility to carry health insurance on the child under the Divorce Decree.

D. Tax Deductions.

The Court allocates the federal tax exemption(s) for the dependent child(ren) as follows:

Child's Name	Date of Birth (Month, Day, Year)	Party Entitled to Deduction	For Calendar
		<input type="checkbox"/> Party A <input type="checkbox"/> Party B
		<input type="checkbox"/> Party A <input type="checkbox"/> Party B
		<input type="checkbox"/> Party A <input type="checkbox"/> Party B

For years following those listed above while this Child Support Order remains in effect, the parties shall repeat the pattern above of claiming deductions for each child.

E. Other orders. This Court makes further Orders relating to this matter as follows:

F. FINAL APPEALABLE ORDER. No further claims or issues remain for the Court to decide. Therefore, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED pursuant to Rule 78(c), Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure, this final judgment/decreed is signed by the Court and it shall be entered by the Clerk of Superior Court. The time for appeal begins upon entry of this judgment by the Clerk of Superior Court. For more information on appeals, see Rule 8 and other Arizona Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure. SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
IN MARICOPA COUNTY

Case No. _____

(Name of Petitioner/Party A)

JOINT LEGAL DECISION-MAKING
EDUCATION ORDER

(Name of Respondent/Party B)

THE COURT FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

1. The parties have the following minor child(ren) (hereinafter the "minor child(ren)"):

Name: _____

Born: _____

2. An order regarding legal decision-making and/or parenting time in the best interests of the minor child(ren) (also referred to as a "Parenting Plan") was entered by this Court on (insert date)

_____.

3. A.R.S. § 25-401 defines two different types of legal decision-making. “Joint legal decision-making” means both parties share decision-making and neither party’s rights or responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parties in the final judgment or order. “Sole legal decision-making” means one party has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child. In this case, the Court has awarded joint legal decision-making to the parties.
4. It furthers the best interests of the minor child(ren) for this Court to enter the following school-specific order that reflects relevant provisions under the Parenting Plan. This order serves to supplement, but not modify or replace, the provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan. If there is a conflict between this order and the current Parenting Plan, the Parenting Plan controls. For purposes of this order, the terms apply equally to schools, pre-schools, and institutional childcare providers.
5. This order is binding upon the parties, who are responsible for complying with its terms and the terms in the Parenting Plan. It is not binding on a school but is provided as guidance for the child(ren)’s schools.

Based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Delivery to School.

The parties are required to provide a copy of this order to the minor child(ren)’s school(s).

2. Joint Legal Decision-making.

The parties have been awarded joint legal decision-making. As it relates to this Education Order, legal decisions include school selection, enrollment/withdrawal, and special services (IEP/504 Plans). In the event the parties cannot agree (select appropriate box):

Joint Decision-making: Neither party is entitled to any greater decision-making authority. No change can be made, nor any action taken, unless the parties agree or a court order resolves the issue.

Joint Decision-making with a party having either “Final” or “Presumptive” Authority: Subject to the terms set forth in the Parenting Plan, decisions will be made by (indicate which party has “presumptive” or “final” authority):

Petitioner/Party A Respondent /Party B

3. School Selection.

Enrollment of the minor child(ren) in a particular school is subject to the school's policies or rules, space availability, enrollment restrictions set by the school or school district or its authorizer (if a charter school), and state law. A party may submit enrollment documentation to the school of choice solely for the purpose of reserving the minor child(ren)'s place at the school. Neither party is restricted from selecting their preference of school for open enrollment purposes.

4. Special Services.

If the minor child(ren) is/are eligible for or being considered for a 504 Plan, an Individualized Education Program (IEP), an Individualized Service Plan (ISP), or other special services:

- An evaluation as to the minor child(ren)'s eligibility for special services shall proceed so long as at least one party consents.
- Both parties are entitled to attend all meetings with school officials that parents are permitted to attend.
- Both parties are authorized to have access to all special services records and testing results.
- Upon completion of any evaluation or assessments, if there is no agreement between the parties regarding the provision of special education and related special services, the decision of how to proceed must be decided in accordance with the legal decision-making orders of the court.

5. Parenting Time and Child Pick-Up.

The school should not use the parenting schedule as a basis to deny either party access to their minor child(ren), nor may either party instruct the school to limit contact, unless otherwise ordered. Each party may pick up the minor child(ren) from school and each may authorize other individuals to pick up the minor child(ren), unless there are limitations under the terms of the current Parenting Plan or another court order.

6. Contact Information.

Each party's home address, e-mail, cell phone and any other contact information must be provided to the school and listed by the school as the contact information for the minor child(ren). Additional emergency contacts may be listed, but in the event of a dispute between the parties, the school must list any person requested by either party until the parties reach an agreement or secure a court order to the contrary. In the event of an emergency, either party may make decisions for the minor child(ren)'s immediate care.

7. Access to School Grounds.

Subject to the policies of the school, or any provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan or other order of the court, there are no restrictions on either party's right to participate in school activities or events, or engage in any parent volunteer activities, that parents are generally permitted to participate in.

8. Access to School Records and Parent Portal.

Both parties are entitled to equal access to the minor child(ren)'s school records. Neither party may restrict the other party's access to information. Further, each party is individually responsible for contacting the school and requesting to be included on any mailing or distribution list.

Both parties are entitled to access the school's student information system or online parent portal(s) (e.g., ParentVUE, Google Classroom, Infinite Campus, etc.). Unless the school allows each party to have an individual login account, the parties must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other party.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parties has equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parties may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.
