SERVICE – Means giving legally required notice to the other parties that you have filed documents with the court to request a court order that may affect them. The court papers can ONLY be delivered in a manner permitted by law, and proof of proper delivery must be filed with the court.	Service Information and Forms: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/llrc/fc_gn2 PIP Resource Video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3TsYe2-vH68
RESPONSE – A written answer to the paperwork that has been filed. An individual who has been served with a petition is the respondent. If the respondent does not agree with the content of the petition, that person should file a response within the appropriate time frame, usually 20 days from the date of service. If no response is filed, the Court assumes that the responding party is in agreement with the requests in the petition. A default may be entered and a decree or judgment signed.	Filing a Response Information and Forms: Paternity: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/llrc/fc_drp3 Divorce with children: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/llrc/fc_drdc3 Divorce without children: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/llrc/fc_drda3 Default, without a Hearing Information and Forms: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/4921/drd68p-f.pdf Default Hearing/Decree on Demand Instructions: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/family/decree-on-demand/ PIP Resource Video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLMRb2ZuMjI

A Proposed Resolution Statement should be filed and provided to the other side at least 5 days prior. If parties are able to agree on all issues, the case can be finalized that day. If the parties are not able to agree on all issues, a hearing will be scheduled for a Judge to resolve any remaining issues.	Proposed Resolution Statement Paternity: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/4476/drpr10fz.pdf Divorce: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/4468/drmcr10fz.pdf PIP Resource Video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KHBj-Abdgvk

Parties and attorney(s) should meet 5 days prior to this conference to attempt to settle issues, if possible. A Proposed Resolution Statement should be filed and provided to the other side at least 5 days before the Conference. If any agreements have been reached, the Judge will enter those agreements as orders at this Conference. If there are remaining disputes, the Judge will set a trial or hearing to hear each party’s position on the dispute and decide the disputed issue.	Proposed Resolution Statement Paternity: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/4476/drpr10fz.pdf Divorce: https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/4468/drmcr10fz.pdf PIP Resource Video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KHBj-Abdgvk

After trial, the Judge will issue orders to settle the disputes in the case. This may be immediate, or may take up to two months.	Pre-trial Statement https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/4478/drpts16fz.pdf Link to Chapter: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P2WYnY6yhdM

These documents identify the agreements you have reached on each of the issues. If the document contains all the required parts, the Court will sign the document and your case will be over.	Consent Decree Divorce with Minor children https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/2274/dr7z.pdf Divorce without Minor Children https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/2274/dr7z.pdf Stipulated Order of Paternity https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/2893/drcj7z.pdf
