HELPFUL INFORMATION ABOUT
CHANGING a COURT ORDER for
LEGAL DECISION-MAKING (LEGAL CUSTODY), CHILD SUPPORT and PARENTING TIME

IMPORTANT INFORMATION. The following is important information on when you can legally ask the court for a change of legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time and child support. Read it carefully before you fill out the Petition.

1. WHEN CAN YOU FILE FOR A CHANGE OF LEGAL DECISION-MAKING?

A. IF YOU HAVE A JOINT LEGAL DECISION-MAKING ORDER - You can only ask for a change of legal decision-making if the following applies to your case:

- At least one (1) year has passed since your joint legal decision-making order was signed by the Court and there have been significant changes in circumstances that make a change in legal decision-making necessary for the good of the minor child(ren), OR
- At least six (6) months have passed and the other parent has not followed the joint legal decision-making order, OR
- There has been domestic violence, spousal abuse, or child abuse and you have evidence that the best interest of your minor child(ren) requires a change.

B. IF YOU HAVE A SOLE LEGAL DECISION-MAKING ORDER - You can only ask for a change of legal decision-making if the following applies to your case:

- at least one (1) year has passed since your sole legal decision-making order was signed by the Court, and there have been significant changes in circumstances that make a change in legal decision-making necessary for the good of the minor child(ren), OR
- There is reason to believe that the minor child(ren)'s current environment may seriously endanger the child(ren)'s physical, mental, moral or emotional health and your minor child(ren) is/are at risk.

WARNING: If enough time has not passed since the signing of your decree/order to allow you to file for a change of legal decision-making, you cannot file for a change of legal decision-making, unless your case falls under one of the exceptions listed above. You may, however, want to seek mediation or counseling as an option toward resolution.

IMPORTANT: If you have reason to believe that the other parent, or someone associated with the other parent, is physically abusing or hurting your minor child(ren), you should contact the Department of Child Safety or your local Police Department immediately. If your minor child(ren) is/are in a dangerous situation, you should take steps to file a “Petition to Modify Legal Decision-Making and/or Parenting Time and Child Support” to get a permanent change of legal decision-making and/or parenting time, and a “Petition for Temporary Modification Without Notice to the Other Party” (formerly known as an “emergency modification”) as soon as possible. Forms are available from the Law Library Resource Center.

2. THINGS TO CONSIDER BEFORE FILING A CHANGE OF LEGAL DECISION-MAKING:

- A. Filing for a change of legal decision-making and/or parenting time is a serious matter and generally should be considered as a last resort. Raising a minor child(ren) in two households, arranging for parenting time, and making joint decisions about a minor child(ren)'s welfare can lead to high levels of stress, conflict, and anger between you, the other party, and the minor child(ren). Unless your minor child(ren) is/are in immediate physical or emotional risk you may find it helpful to seek family counseling or mediation as an option before you take legal action.

Mediation is a voluntary process where you and the other parent meet with a professional who will try to help you work together to find a solution to your problem. The mediator is not there to take sides, but can help you understand the other parent's point of view. The mediator helps you approach your problems in a way that will more likely lead to an agreement and will help you to focus on your minor child(ren)'s needs first.

Mediation services are available at your option, through the Family Department in the Superior Court, or through private mediation services. Another option toward resolving legal custody, parenting time or child support issues you may consider is family counseling, to learn how to better deal with ongoing problems. A list of mediators and counselors is available through the Law Library Resource Center or you can contact Community Information and Referral Services “211” website, under “Mediation and Arbitration”.

- B. To change legal decision-making, you must convince the judge through appropriate evidence, that the best interests of the minor child(ren) requires that legal decision-making be changed. The judge usually will not change legal decision-making unless you can show that there is a substantial and continuing change of circumstances. What this means is that you must convince the judge that something has happened since the Decree or Order was signed that will be continuing and which makes you the better parent to have legal decision-making of the minor child(ren). Changes like a new spouse, change or loss of job, or new place of residence are generally not enough to change legal decision-making.

You must show that the change or situation has a substantial effect on the minor child(ren)'s well-being. Judges generally do not want to put a minor child(ren) through another serious change in surroundings, unless he or she is convinced it is necessary for the child(ren)'s welfare.

There are many things the judge may look at in deciding "the best interest of the minor child(ren)." The law says that the Court will look at issues such as:

- how the minor child relates to parents, brothers and sisters;
- how the minor child is doing in school and socially;
- which parent is more likely to cooperate in giving parenting time to the other parent;

- which parent is better able mentally and physically to care for the minor child;
- which parent has provided the primary care to the minor child; and
- evidence of what a parent has done to convince the other parent to make a legal decision-making agreement.

The Court will give serious consideration to domestic violence against you, the minor child, or another person in the child's presence when deciding whether or not to change legal decision-making. Evidence of drug or alcohol abuse by either parent is also an important factor in a legal decision-making decision.

3. TIPS FOR FILING A CHANGE OF LEGAL DECISION-MAKING. A change of legal decision-making has several special requirements that you should understand before you begin.

Tip #1: Whenever possible, try to solve your legal decision-making problems through voluntary programs such as counseling or mediation, unless your minor child(ren) is/are at immediate risk. If you try to solve your problems through family counseling or mediation before you file, you may be successful, and may no longer need to go to court.

Tip #2: Before you file, make sure six (6) months have passed since your final joint legal decision-making Decree/Order was signed, or one (1) full year has passed since your sole legal decision-making Decree/Order was signed, unless you meet an exception listed above.

Tip #3: Be sure that the changes in circumstances that caused you to request the change of legal decision-making are important and related to issues of your minor child(ren)s long term best interest. In other words, do not file for a change of legal decision-making, if you simply aren't getting along with the other parent or have changed your mind about legal decision-making. Be sure that if you are making allegations of abuse or neglect, that you have witnesses or evidence to back up your statements.

Tip #4: If your minor child(ren) has/have been seriously hurt or physically abused, contact the appropriate authorities and file a “Petition for Temporary Modification of Legal Decision-Making Without Notice” to get the minor child out of the dangerous environment as soon as possible. You will still need to file a “Petition to Change Legal Decision-Making.” These forms are available at the Law Library Resource Center.

Instructions for filling out the Petition to Modify Legal Decision-making (Legal Custody), Parenting Time and Child Support

Important Notice to Victims of Domestic Violence: All court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, are in a domestic violence shelter, or if you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your minor children from further violence, you must file for an Order of Protection and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that Order, just write “protected” when asked for this information and update the Clerk of Superior Court with an address and phone number as soon as possible.

Use this form only if you already have a court order concerning legal decision-making, parenting time and/or child support. You will want to have a copy of your Order in front of you as you fill out these papers.

A. Please type or print with black ink only!

In the top left corner of the first page, provide the information requested about you. If your address is protected by court order, write “protected” in the space for address and make sure the Court has a means of contacting you on file.

B. Fill in the top section where it says Name of Petitioner (Party A), Name of Respondent (Party B), and Case Number, exactly as it appears on your original Maricopa County court case where legal decision-making, parenting time and/or child support was originally ordered.

General information:

1. Information about me: Fill in your name, address (if not protected) and how you are related to the minor children.
2. Information about the other party: Fill in the other party’s name, address (if not protected) including city, state and zip code and how the other party is related to the minor child(ren).

3. Information about the children for whom I want the legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, and/or child support order changed: Provide the information requested on all the children under 18 years of age for whom you are seeking to make a change in legal custody, parenting time and child support.
4. Affidavit Regarding Minor Children. If the minor children have resided in Arizona since the entry of the last Arizona legal decision-making, parenting time or child support Order check the first box. If not, you must attach an Affidavit Regarding Minor Children and check the second box. The Affidavit Regarding Minor Children form is in the forms packet.
5. Information about the Order I want to change. Write in the date the Judge signed the Order, the name of the court (“Superior” or “District,” etc.), the name of the county, and the name of the state where the order was signed. Include the page numbers and sections of the decree/order where the language appears.

What your Order now says: This is where you tell the judge exactly what part of your decree/order you want to change. You should find your current decree/order, read it carefully several times and then decide what parts you want to change.

6. Domestic violence. Choose the option that best describes your situation relating to legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time. If you need more room to explain, you can use extra sheets of paper and attach it to this Petition.
7. Drug / alcohol abuse and convictions within the last 12 months. Choose the option that best describes your situation relating to legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time. If you need more room, you can use extra sheets of paper and attach it to this Petition.
8. Why the Decree/Order should be changed: This is where you briefly explain to the judge why you think a change of your existing decree/order is necessary for the best interest of the minor child(ren). If you need more room, you can use extra sheets of paper and attach it to this Petition. If you are asking the judge for a change in child support, attach an updated child support worksheet to this petition, and mark the box indicating the attachment.

Requests I make to the Court: This is where you explain to the judge what you want your decree/order to say about legal decision-making, parenting time and/or child support.

A. Legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time and child support:

Joint legal decision-making: If you are asking for joint legal decision-making, check this box, and write the names of the minor children in the space provided. If you check this box, complete the Parenting Plan before you go to the judge for your final order. The Parenting Plan is in the (#3) “Orders” packet, when the parties disagree, and in the first (#1) packet if parties agree.

Sole legal decision-making: If you want sole legal decision-making, check the boxes that apply, including the parenting time you are asking for. Tell the court whether you want primary (more than 50% of) physical custody of the minor children to go to you or the other party.

Parenting time: Mark one box only. You can ask that the non-custodial parent (the parent having less than 50% physical custody of the minor children) have one of the following types of parenting time:

1. Reasonable parenting time -- This suggests an amount of parenting time appropriate to the age of the child.
2. Reasonable parenting time by agreement of both parties -- Complete the Parenting Plan before you go to the judge for your final order. The Parenting Plan is in the “Orders” packet.

Refer to “Planning for Parenting Time: Arizona’s Guide for Parents Living Apart” to help make your new parenting plan. The Guide is available for purchase at all Superior Court Law Library Resource Center locations or may be viewed online and downloaded for free from the state courts’ web page.

3. Supervised parenting time to the non-custodial parent. You should request supervised parenting time if the non-custodial parent cannot adequately care for the minor children without another person present. You may request this if the person not having the most time with the child(ren), abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or does not have the parenting skills to care for the minor child(ren) without another adult present. Remember, supervised parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the minor child(ren). You must write the reasons why parenting time should be supervised.

4. No parenting time to the non-custodial parent. You should mark this box only if the non-custodial parent has seriously harmed, abused, or otherwise is a serious danger to the minor children's physical and emotional health, or if there is a criminal court order stating there is to be no contact between the minor children and the non-custodial parent. This is a last resort to protect the minor children.

Note: Even if you do not want to change the child support amount, the judge will still review all the financial information to determine if child support should be changed.

- B. Child support: Mark the box to indicate which party will pay child support. Fill in the amount from the completed Child Support Worksheet, or if you are requesting an amount different from the Worksheet amount (a deviation), enter that amount. Check one of the boxes to indicate whether you are requesting the amount calculated on the Worksheet – or to deviate from that amount based on other factor.

You can use the free online Child Support Calculator at the website listed below to complete a child support worksheet.

ezCourtForms: <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/ezcourtforms2/>

You may also be required to present an Affidavit of Financial Information (DROSC13f) especially if requesting to deviate from the amount listed on the Child Support Worksheet and may need to refer to the “Arizona Child Support Guidelines” (DRS10h) as well. These documents are available at the Superior Court Law Library Resource Center locations or website.

- C. Medical, dental, vision care insurance payments and expenses: Mark which party should be responsible for health, medical, dental, and vision care insurance and other related expenses. Then write in what percentage Party A should pay and what percentage Party B should pay of those expenses not covered by insurance. The total percentage must be 100%.

- D. Federal income tax deduction. Tell the court whether Party A or Party B should claim the minor children as income tax deductions every year or every other year.
- E. Other orders: Fill in this information only if you have made other requests to the court. Write the specific additional orders you are requesting the court to make that were not covered elsewhere in your Petition. Use extra pages if necessary.
- F. Oath or affirmation and verification: This document must be signed in front of a Deputy Clerk of Superior Court or Notary. By signing the Petition under Oath or Affirmation, you are stating, under penalty of perjury, that the information is true and correct.

After you have completed the Petition:

When you have completed all forms: Go to the Procedures - How to File Your Petition to Modify Child Custody, Parenting Time and Child Support for what to do after you have completed the Petition to Modify Legal Decision-making, Parenting Time and Child Support.

2. An order regarding legal decision-making and/or parenting time in the best interests of the minor child(ren) (also referred to as a "Parenting Plan") was entered by this Court on (insert date)

3. A.R.S. § 25-401 defines two different types of legal decision-making. “Joint legal decision-making” means both parties share decision-making and neither party’s rights or responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parties in the final judgment or order. “Sole legal decision-making” means one party has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child. In this case, the Court has awarded joint legal decision-making to the parties.
4. It furthers the best interests of the minor child(ren) for this Court to enter the following school-specific order that reflects relevant provisions under the Parenting Plan. This order serves to supplement, but not modify or replace, the provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan. If there is a conflict between this order and the current Parenting Plan, the Parenting Plan controls. For purposes of this order, the terms apply equally to schools, pre-schools, and institutional childcare providers.
5. This order is binding upon the parties, who are responsible for complying with its terms and the terms in the Parenting Plan. It is not binding on a school but is provided as guidance for the child(ren)’s schools.

Based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Delivery to School.

The parties are required to provide a copy of this order to the minor child(ren)’s school(s).

2. Joint Legal Decision-making.

The parties have been awarded joint legal decision-making. As it relates to this Education Order, legal decisions include school selection, enrollment/withdrawal, and special services (IEP/504 Plans). In the event the parties cannot agree (select appropriate box):

Joint Decision-making: Neither party is entitled to any greater decision-making authority. No change can be made, nor any action taken, unless the parties agree or a court order resolves the issue.

Joint Decision-making with a party having either “Final” or “Presumptive” Authority: Subject to the terms set forth in the Parenting Plan, decisions will be made by (indicate which party has “presumptive” or “final” authority):

Petitioner/Party A       Respondent /Party B

3. School Selection.

Enrollment of the minor child(ren) in a particular school is subject to the school's policies or rules, space availability, enrollment restrictions set by the school or school district or its authorizer (if a charter school), and state law. A party may submit enrollment documentation to the school of choice solely for the purpose of reserving the minor child(ren)'s place at the school. Neither party is restricted from selecting their preference of school for open enrollment purposes.

4. Special Services.

If the minor child(ren) is/are eligible for or being considered for a 504 Plan, an Individualized Education Program (IEP), an Individualized Service Plan (ISP), or other special services:

- An evaluation as to the minor child(ren)'s eligibility for special services shall proceed so long as at least one party consents.
- Both parties are entitled to attend all meetings with school officials that parents are permitted to attend.
- Both parties are authorized to have access to all special services records and testing results.
- Upon completion of any evaluation or assessments, if there is no agreement between the parties regarding the provision of special education and related special services, the decision of how to proceed must be decided in accordance with the legal decision-making orders of the court.

5. Parenting Time and Child Pick-Up.

The school should not use the parenting schedule as a basis to deny either party access to their minor child(ren), nor may either party instruct the school to limit contact, unless otherwise ordered. Each party may pick up the minor child(ren) from school and each may authorize other individuals to pick up the minor child(ren), unless there are limitations under the terms of the current Parenting Plan or another court order.

6. Contact Information.

Each party's home address, e-mail, cell phone and any other contact information must be provided to the school and listed by the school as the contact information for the minor child(ren). Additional emergency contacts may be listed, but in the event of a dispute between the parties, the school must list any person requested by either party until the parties reach an agreement or secure a court order to the contrary. In the event of an emergency, either party may make decisions for the minor child(ren)'s immediate care.

7. Access to School Grounds.

Subject to the policies of the school, or any provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan or other order of the court, there are no restrictions on either party's right to participate in school activities or events, or engage in any parent volunteer activities, that parents are generally permitted to participate in.

8. Access to School Records and Parent Portal.

Both parties are entitled to equal access to the minor child(ren)'s school records. Neither party may restrict the other party's access to information. Further, each party is individually responsible for contacting the school and requesting to be included on any mailing or distribution list.

Both parties are entitled to access the school's student information system or online parent portal(s) (e.g., ParentVUE, Google Classroom, Infinite Campus, etc.). Unless the school allows each party to have an individual login account, the parties must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other party.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parties has equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parties may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.

2. An order regarding legal decision-making and/or parenting time in the best interests of the minor child(ren) (also referred to as a "Parenting Plan") was entered by this Court on (insert date)

3. A.R.S. § 25-401 defines two different types of legal decision-making. “Joint legal decision-making” means both parties share decision-making and neither party’s rights or responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parties in the final judgment or order. “Sole legal decision-making” means one party has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child. In this case, the Court has awarded sole legal decision-making to one party.

4. It furthers the best interests of the minor child(ren) for this Court to enter the following school-specific order that reflects relevant provisions under the Parenting Plan. This order serves to supplement, but not modify or replace, the provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan. If there is a conflict between this order and the current Parenting Plan, the Parenting Plan controls. For purposes of this order, the terms apply equally to schools, pre-schools, and institutional childcare providers.

5. This order is binding upon the parties, who are responsible for complying with its terms and the terms in the Parenting Plan. It is not binding on a school but is provided as guidance for the child(ren)’s schools.

Based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Delivery to School.

The parties are required to provide a copy of this order to the minor child(ren)’s school(s).

2. Sole Legal Decision-making.

Sole legal decision-making authority has been awarded to (indicate which party has sole legal decision-making):  Petitioner/Party A       Respondent/Party B

As it relates to this Education Order, legal decisions include school selection, enrollment/withdrawal, and special services (IEP/504 Plans).

3. School Selection.

Only the party with sole legal decision-making authority has the authority to select the minor child(ren)’s school. However, enrollment of the minor child(ren) in a particular school is subject to the school’s policies or rules, space availability, enrollment restrictions set by the school or school district or its authorizer (if a charter school), and state law.

4. Special Services.

If the minor child(ren) is/are eligible for or being considered for a 504 Plan, an Individualized Education Program (IEP), an Individualized Service Plan (ISP), or other special services, only the party with sole legal decision-making has the authority to consent to evaluation and/or the child(ren)'s participation in special education and related special services.

Both parties are entitled to attend all meetings with school officials that parents are permitted to attend. Both parties are authorized to have access to all special services records and testing results.

5. Parenting Time and Child Pick-Up.

The school should not use the parenting schedule as a basis to deny either party access to their minor child(ren), nor may either party instruct the school to limit contact, unless otherwise ordered. Each party may pick up the minor child(ren) from school and each may authorize other individuals to pick up the minor child(ren), unless there are limitations under the terms of the current Parenting Plan or other court order.

6. Contact Information.

Each party's home address, e-mail, cell phone and any other contact information must be provided to the school and listed by the school as the contact information for the minor child(ren). Additional emergency contacts may be listed, but in the event of a dispute between the parties, the school must list any person requested by either party until the parties reach an agreement or secure a court order to the contrary. In the event of an emergency, either party may make decisions for the minor child(ren)'s immediate care.

7. Access to School Grounds.

Subject to the policies of the school, or any provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan or other order of the court, there are no restrictions on either party's right to participate in school activities or events, or engage in any parent volunteer activities, that parents are generally permitted to participate in.

8. Access to School Records and Parent Portal.

Both parties are entitled to equal access to the minor child(ren)'s school records. Neither party may restrict the other party's access to information. Further, each party is individually responsible for contacting the school and requesting to be included on any mailing or distribution list.

Both parties are entitled to access the school's student information system or online parent portal(s) (e.g., ParentVUE, Google Classroom, Infinite Campus, etc.). Unless the school allows each party to have an individual login account, the parties must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other party.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parties has the equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parties may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.

Service

The filing party must serve a copy of the Petition with this Order to Appear, every order, warrant, and affidavit in support of the petition, on all other parties in accordance with the Arizona Rules of Family Procedure. The party that filed the pleadings must make good faith efforts to complete service promptly and within 10 days after the receipt of the issued order to appear but must complete service in no event later than 20 days before the hearing.

Proof of service must be provided to the Judge's office at least _____ days before the RMC or the RMC may be rescheduled or the matter dismissed.

For information about service and other forms see Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure, at the Court's website, www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov, or the packet regarding service available at the Law Library Resource Center.

Failure to Appear

All parties must attend the hearing. If only one party comes to the RMC, the Court will likely proceed without the other party's participation. If neither party appears at the hearing, the matter may be dismissed.

What Happens at the RMC

The purpose of the RMC is to facilitate agreements between the parties and determine how the matter will proceed to resolution. The Court will not accept evidence, so you do not need to bring witnesses or documents.

How to Prepare for the RMC

Before the RMC, each party must disclose to the other party all documents and information he or she has that is relevant to the case. The failure to give the opposing party the information may mean the information cannot be used at trial.

At least 5 days before the RMC, each party must (1) file with the Clerk of Superior Court; (2) provide to the opposing party; and (3) provide a Resolution Statement to the Judicial Officer assigned to your case via Family Administration or hand deliver to the Judge's office as required by Rule 76 of the Arizona Rules of Family Court Procedure. The Resolution Statement must include a description of agreements reached by the parties and each party's position on issues still in dispute.

At least 5 days before the RMC, the parties must meet and discuss their positions to try to resolve issue(s). This requirement does not apply if a Court order prohibits contact between the parties or they have a history of domestic violence. If the parties have lawyers, the lawyers are still obligated to resolve as many issues as possible.

Requests for reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities must be made to the division assigned to the case by the party needing accommodation or his/her counsel at least three (3) judicial days in advance of a scheduled proceeding.

Requests for an interpreter for persons with limited English proficiency must be made to the division assigned to the case by the party needing the interpreter and/or translator or his/her counsel at least ten (10) judicial days in advance of a scheduled court proceeding.

Counsel's Duties:

If both parties are represented by counsel, counsel must confer before the conference regarding the issues raised by the petition, anticipated discovery and disclosure, the timing for anticipated discovery and disclosure, alternative dispute resolution or mediation options, and the possible resolution of any of the issues raised by the petition.

For information about the RMC and Rule 76 see Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure, at the Court's website, www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov, or the packet regarding service available at the Law Library Resource Center.

Failure to obey this order may result in sanctions.
