FORM 1A: NOTICE TO PARENT IN IN-HOME INTERVENTION ACTION

You are a party in an in-home intervention action. The Court will make decisions about the care and custody of your child until you demonstrate that you are able to do so. Except as otherwise provided by law, court hearings relating to dependent children are open to the public. You may request that the hearings be closed, and the Court may order them closed for good cause.

If the Court orders the in-home intervention, the Court will order services for you. You must participate in these services. The Court's in-home intervention order will include a specific time for you to complete the in-home intervention services, and that time cannot exceed one year without review and approval by the Court.

If you violate the in-home intervention orders made by the Court, including failing or refusing to participate in services, the Court may take whatever steps it deems necessary to obtain your compliance, may remove your child from your care, or may rescind the in-home intervention order and set an adjudication hearing on the dependency petition.

The Court will presume that you understand the contents of this notice unless you tell the Court at today's hearing that you do not understand this notice.
