CALENDARING FORM

This completed Settlement on Demand Calendarling Form should be emailed to settlement@jbazmc.maricopa.gov. Any in-person settlement conference must be conducted with all social-distancing requirements observed, and with the minimum number of participants physically present in the courtroom.

The parties hereby avow to the Court that the following items have occurred in this case (the matter is only eligible for a settlement conference if each item is checked):

- EITHER The State extended a plea which expires _____ and has been communicated to Defendant OR The State has not extended a plea offer, but Defendant sent plea offer / deviation request.
- The parties have negotiated in good faith and reached an impasse.
- The prosecutor who attends the settlement conference will have the authority to settle the case, including the authority to make changes to the plea agreement.
- The Court’s intervention is needed for some identified, tangible reason(s) (i.e., asking the judge to “explain the ranges” is not sufficient). The reason(s) are as follows:
_____.
- Subject to Administrative Order limitations, the parties are requesting that the hearing be held everyone virtual, everyone in-person, or hybrid (both virtual & in-person). The basis for requesting an in-person hearing for an out-of-custody matter is as follows: _____.
- EITHER No prior settlement conference has been held OR a prior settlement conference was held on _____ and another settlement conference is needed because _____.
