ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR)
CIVIL SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES FOR JUDGES PRO TEMPORE (JPTs)

- Cases are referred to ADR by minute entry or scheduling order
 1. Upon receipt of referrals, cases are sorted and tickled for assignment to JPTs 90 days prior to the deadlines set by minute entries or scheduling orders. If the deadline is less than 90 days, ADR will request the Judge's division to extend the deadline to meet the minimum 90-day requirement.
 2. There are approximately between 100 and 150 cases tickled for each rotation.
- Appointment of JPTs
 1. Random appointment by using a database with JPTs sorted by date of appointment. The ADR Program Coordinator does not use a "conflict check" program. Conflict checks are accomplished by manually comparing JPT's address with attorneys' on the case being assigned to the JPT.
 2. JPT with the earliest date of appointment gets appointed first.
 3. Rotation varies, depending on the number of pending cases @ ADR.
 - Rotation is approximately every 45 days, but when pending cases start increasing in volume, appointment is between 30-35 days.
 4. Recusals: IN THE INTEREST OF TIME, PLEASE NOTIFY ADR IMMEDIATELY BY USING ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:
 - Notice of Recusal
 - Letter of Recusal
 - Recusal E-mail (e-mail the ADR Program Coordinator or adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov)

Please ensure ADR is copied on the document you decide to use. Upon recusal, case will be reassigned to a new JPT and a new case will be assigned to the recused JPT. Please also ensure you notify parties/counsel of your recusal. If the recusal will result to extension of the deadline to conduct the settlement conference, the JPT is requested to instruct counsel to file a motion to extend the deadline with the assigned judge.
 5. JPTs on HOLD status (i.e., medical leave, schedule conflict) are skipped and are activated on the list when they become available*
 - *NOTE: Please call or e-mail the ADR Program Coordinator or e-mail adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov if you need to be put "ON HOLD STATUS". When "ON HOLD STATUS" has expired, the ADR Program Coordinator will start assigning you to ADR cases upon activation.
- Upon receipt of the appointment notice, please download the following forms from the ADR website: <https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/adr/>. Click on ADR resources for Judges Pro Tem:
 1. Certificate of Pro Tem Hours: Judge Pro Tempore fills out and sends to ADR, along with the Civil Settlement Conference Report (please send via fax, e-mail, or U.S. Mail).
 2. Civil Settlement Conference Report (please send completed form via fax, e-mail (adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov), runner service, or U.S. Mail).
 - To be completed by the JPT
 - Upon conclusion of the settlement conference: When parties reach a FULL, PARTIAL, or NO SETTLEMENT
 - When parties settle prior, when parties decide to go to a private mediator, when parties fail to contact the Judge Pro Tempore within 10 days of receipt of the notice of appointment of the JPT, or when JPT is notified by parties that case has been dismissed and a settlement conference is no longer necessary
 3. Agreement Between the Parties Pursuant to A.R.Civ.P. Rule 80(a) (as needed): Please fill in the appropriate information and have parties/counsel sign the form and send original or electronic copy to ADR for filing or your office may e-file the original and a copy forwarded to ADR, along with the settlement conference report. JPT is requested to provide copies to counsel/parties. NOTE: If the agreement is CONFIDENTIAL, you may send the rule 80(a) to ADR for filing under seal. Upon receipt, ADR will send the document to the Clerk of Court for filing under seal. Please make sure to mark the agreement as "CONFIDENTIAL".

4. Notice of Civil Settlement Conference (as needed): Please fill in the appropriate information, sign and date the bottom, e-file original, and forward a copy to ADR via e-mail (adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov), fax (602-506-5836), runner service, or U.S. mail. Please mail/e-mail copies to parties/counsel. If you choose to use your own form or letter, please courtesy copy ADR by e-mail, fax, or U.S. mail. Note: If you need unrepresented parties' contact information, please e-mail adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov.
5. Order Regarding Failure to Contact Judge Pro Tempore to Schedule Settlement Conference (as needed): Use this form when parties fail to contact you to schedule the settlement conference within the time period specified by the ADR Notice of Civil Settlement Conference. Please fill in the appropriate information, sign and date the bottom, e-file original, and forward a copy to ADR via e-mail (adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov), fax (602-506-5836), or U.S. mail. Please mail/e-mail copies to parties/counsel. If you choose to use your own form or letter, please courtesy copy ADR by e-mail, fax, runner service, or U.S. mail. Note: If you need unrepresented parties' contact information, please e-mail adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov.
6. Scheduling the Settlement Conference (NOTE: PLEASE KEEP ADR INFORMED ON THE STATUS OF YOUR CASES; ALTHOUGH ADR IS PART OF THE JUDICIAL BRANCH, ADR IS NOT ALWAYS COPIED ON MOTIONS, NOTICES OF SETTLEMENT, ETC., FILED BY PARTIES/ATTORNEYS.)
 - Counsel/parties have 10 calendar days, upon receipt of the notice, to contact the JPT to schedule the settlement conference. If counsel/parties fail to contact the JPT within the days specified above, JPT should prepare the Order Regarding Failure to Contact Judge Pro Tempore to Schedule Settlement Conference (see instructions on #5 above). The settlement conference must be conducted on or before the deadline set on the notice of appointment.
 - If the deadline needs to be extended due to counsel's/parties' schedule conflict or more time is needed to conduct the settlement conference, JPT should instruct counsel to file a motion to extend the deadline with the judge assigned to the case.
 - The JPT does not have authority to extend the deadline to conduct the settlement conference. The motion to extend the deadline to conduct the settlement conference MUST go to the judge assigned to the case.
 - The JPT can only grant the motion to continue the SCHEDULED settlement conference NOT the DEADLINE TO CONDUCT THE SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE.
 - If the JPT is unable to meet the deadline, the JPT may request ADR to either reassign the case to a new JPT or ask ADR to request an extension of the deadline from the judge assigned to the case. As soon as an extension is granted by the judge assigned to the case, a minute entry will be generated by the judge's division.
 - Once the settlement conference is scheduled, please make sure to send a copy of the notice to ADR. ADR will then enter the date/time of the settlement conference on ADR's database and Integrated Court Information System (iCIS). NOTE: For cases requiring an interpreter

(examples: Spanish, Mandarin, Arabic, etc.), please email adroffice1@jbazmc.maricopa.gov to request an interpreter. ADR will then send the request to Court Interpretation and Translation Services (CITS) to send the interpreter to the location determined by the JPT.

- Civil Court Settlement Conference On Line Survey Form: The link to the CV Settlement Conference On Line Survey is: <https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/ADRCV>
PLEASE PROVIDE THIS LINK TO LITIGANTS AND COUNSEL.
All party information remains confidential. The comments are shared with the individual JPT at the end of the fiscal year.

Court Files: To view records remotely, the JPT needs to first register with the Electronic Court Record Online (ECR Online) at <https://ecr.clerkofcourt.maricopa.gov/login.aspx>. Email a copy of the order naming the attorney as JPT to the customer support email address: efilesupport@cosc.maricopa.gov or fax the document to the Clerk's Office at 602-372-8751. In the email or fax to the Clerk's Office, include the case number and JPT's name as well as preferred contact information in case Clerk staff needs to follow-up. Office staff will manually add the case number to the JPT's list of viewable cases within ECR Online and will email confirmation when the case is added, typically by the next business day. This customer service enhancement improves access for customers and allows the Clerk of the Court's Office to better manage its limited resources.

AZTurboCourt for Special Masters* and Arbitrators:

Effective September 1, 2011, the Arizona Supreme Court Administrative Order 2011-87 directs the Clerk's Office not to accept paper filings from attorneys in civil cases. Civil cases must still be initiated on paper; however, subsequent documents must be eFiled through AZTurboCourt unless an exception defined in the Administrative Order applies.

Special Masters* and Arbitrators have been filing submissions over-the-counter due to a system constraint which charged them the application fee. The problem has been remedied and beginning August 12, 2011 Special Masters and Arbitrators are able to file their documents via AZTurboCourt without being charged the application fee.

*Although the instructions say "SPECIAL MASTERS OR ARBITRATORS", below instructions also apply to JPTs.

Instructions for new functionality:

- Log-in to AZTurboCourt using your normal log-in and password.
- When you arrive at the Attorney Information screen shown below, you will notice a checkbox that can be selected indicating that "I have been appointed by the Court to act as a Special Master or Arbitrator in this case."

- Upon conclusion of the settlement conference, the Judge Pro Tempore must ensure that the settlement conference report and certificate of pro tem hours form are e-mailed, faxed, mailed, or delivered to ADR via runner service.

- Processing of settlement conference reports
 1. Upon receipt of completed report from JPT:
 - Via US mail or runner service: ADR scans report, updates iCIS and ADR's records, and e-mails copy to the assigned judge.
 - Via e-mail: ADR forwards report to the assigned judge and updates iCIS and ADR's records.
 2. The reports are also used to generate ADR's statistics.
 3. ADR is required to submit monthly SC statistics to Court Administration. JPTs are requested to submit their SC reports to ADR immediately after the settlement conference. If a settlement conference is not held, please fill out the report form and mark the appropriate result. Please write a brief note of what happened in the comment section. It is imperative that each JPT return the report even if the settlement conference does not take place. This assures that our records and statistics are as accurate as possible.

- Statistics:
 1. One week after the end of each month, ADR prepares a statistical report for submission to Court Administration. It is imperative that each JPT submits their settlement conference reports for the previous month. This will ensure timely submission of the monthly statistical report to Court Administration.
 2. At the end of each fiscal year, ADR issues a statistical report to each JPT. The report includes a statistical breakdown of the settlement agreement rate and evaluation comments.
 3. The fiscal year statistical report is sent to Civil Court Presiding Judge, each Civil Court Superior Court Judge, Civil Court Administrator, and Court Administration.

Notice of Civil Settlement Conference

04/10/2020

CV2019-003338

The Settlement Conference memorandum shall include the following information:

1. A general description of the issues in the lawsuit, and each party's position with respect to each issue;
2. A description of the evidence each party intends to present, with respect to each issue stated in item 1;
3. A summary all settlement negotiations that have previously occurred;
4. An assessment by each party of the anticipated result if the matter did proceed to trial; and
5. Any other information the party believes would be helpful to the settlement process.

All motions to continue the scheduled Settlement Conference shall be brought before the assigned Judge Pro Tempore DAVID LEE SANDWEISS, with a copy of the motion to be provided to the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). If a continuance is granted, the requesting party shall provide a signed copy of the Order to ADR. Any other pre-trial motions shall be brought before the judge permanently assigned to the case.

By this appointment, the Judge Pro Tempore becomes an extension of the court and therefore is entrusted with certain powers and duties. Any agreement the parties enter into, which is memorialized by the Judge Pro Tempore, shall be considered a binding agreement, in accordance with Rule 80 (a), A.R.C.P.

Failure to comply with this Court Order may result in the imposition of court sanctions, pursuant to Rule 16(h), A.R.C.P.

Settlement Conference Guide

- What is a settlement. An agreement between parties that resolves some or all of the issues in litigation.
 - Settlement can
 - Be “full” or “partial”
 - Streamline issues that proceed to litigation
 - Allow stipulation of agreed upon facts

- The effective settlement negotiator must know how to discount litigation’s risks and rewards:
 - Know the facts, not necessarily completion of discovery
 - Know the applicable law
 - Communicate the range of probable outcomes
 - Rely on communication skills

- Remember: All cases settle at some point. If not in conference, there may be a good reason for proceeding to trial

- Why try to settle at a conference
 - Expense of litigation costs
 - Financial/emotional drain for parties
 - Time/difficulty collecting fees
 - Toll on the court system and taxpayer

- Settlement: Generally, most satisfying outcome
 - Based on what’s fair, not what parties are asking for
 - Parties have “day in court”
 - Attorneys can avoid complete loss for client
 - Judge gets satisfaction of helping parties reach agreement

- Justice is served
 - Settlements avoid extreme results
 - Provide positive satisfaction with court system

- Effective Settlement Conference Techniques
 - Use basic mediation techniques (Getting to Yes by Fisher & Ury)
 - Personalities impeding case resolution? Identify hidden emotional agendas
 - Use effective listening: Watch what is being communicated, not just what’s being said
 - Focus on “interest” not “positions”: What do parties really need to move on?

- Help parties find creative (non-monetary) alternatives: What can one party do for the other party more easily than that party can do for themselves?
- Maintain a rational, problem-solving focus for negotiations
- Judicial settlement conference techniques
 - Establish your authority/expertise
 - Set conference Ground Rules
 - Start with initial group meeting
 - Parties can consult with counsel
 - Explain caucusing
 - Set conference tone and style in introductory remarks. Project an image of experience, knowledge, fairness, and friendship
 - Relaxed, informal atmosphere
 - Set aside adversarial attitude/posturing
 - Invite parties to reason together to resolve differences
 - Be prepared: Read the file in advance
 - Allow brief statement by attorneys and/or parties
 - Identify the issues
 - Give case history on negotiations
 - State positions/why attorneys believe they're reasonable
 - Judicial analysis
 - Conduct candid discussion of strengths/weaknesses of each party's positions (in caucus)
 - Watch for clues in speech/body language
 - Use "active listening" skills
 - Parroting
 - Paraphrasing
 - Reflective listening
 - Brainstorm potential solutions
 - If caucus
 - Use reality testing
 - Avoid appearance of bias
 - Demonstrate an unreasonable position with role reversal
 - Negotiation. Try to move parties off positions and closer to common ground
 - Exert reciprocal pressure to settle--avoid coercion
 - Split the difference only when parties are close in terms; no reasonable distinction in positions
 - Offer additional conference time if needed
- What to do when parties settle: Always get agreements on the record with attorneys/parties present and their affirmation of settlement terms

Top Tips for Conducting Settlement Conferences

1. The Judge should be proactive in trying to resolve the issues in the case.
2. Create an environment conducive to settlement. Set the tone to encourage compromise and conciliation.
3. Make an introductory statement:
Explain the purpose of the conference:
 - To organize and clarify the issues for trial, settling issues that can be settled; issue any orders necessary to that end.
 - Let parties know that you understand the seriousness of the matter and the emotional issues they are facing.
 - Let parties know they don't have to settle; however, if they can work out their differences, it will save everyone significant time, frustration and expense.
 - Let parties know they have a right to trial, but sometimes the Judge makes a decision that no one likes. By working on a settlement, they can reach an agreement that meets their family's needs.
 - Encourage parties to be open about compromise. You are not the trial judge. Therefore, efforts at compromise will not be used against them at trial.
4. Be aware of the attorneys' need to preserve their relationship with their client. Some nice words about the lawyers in the presence of their clients will tend to reduce obstruction from counsel.
5. Recognize the attorneys' roles. Allow each attorney to make a brief "opening statement" regarding issues not yet resolved. Keep these statements to a minimum. Save the bulk of time for finding solutions.
6. Act as a sounding board for the issues. Parties and attorneys may be looking for feedback from the Judge. Be proactive and address the issues, making appropriate comment on the law as applied to these facts.
7. When parties begin by stating no agreement is possible, explore easy issues first to see if you can limit disagreements.
8. Think creatively. Create options or suggest alternatives that the attorneys may not have foreseen or could not suggest themselves.
9. Be a good listener. Identify and deal with emotional issues that may be impeding settlement.
10. Remain neutral even if you are inclined to side with one party
 - Avoid caucus or it could be construed as siding with one party
 - Avoid any appearance of favoring one side or one attorney. If you call one attorney by a first name, address the other attorney in the same manner.
 - Acknowledge aloud that each party's feelings are genuine about their positions, but your hope is to discover what they really need to move on and put this litigation behind them.
11. Complete unfinished discovery. If a party has not cooperated with discovery requests or not carried out pre-trial orders, issue orders to timely gain the information and include sanctions for non-compliance.

12. Keep control of the proceedings. Proceed methodically. Don't accept a statement that no settlement is possible. Your job is to explore.
13. Address topics one at a time. When possible, nail down agreements before going on to the next topic.
14. Start with easy things first, such as personal property, debts, who gets what car, etc. This helps get people in the mood to settle.
15. Be a facilitator, not a bully. People are more satisfied when they think they have voluntarily come to their own decisions.
16. In most cases, one or two issues are important to each party. They are not always the same issues. Find them. They will negotiate everything else.
17. Compliment attorneys on the work they have done, but let parties know that even though these attorneys will work hard for them, by settling this case they will save significant attorneys' fees. Remind people of the benefits of settlement, in terms of money, time, and trauma.
18. Take charge when settlement is imminent on an issue. Do not let it slip away before you get both parties to commit.
19. In reaching settlement, you want to terminate all ties that you can, so that parties do not have to worry about ongoing contact (except with regard to children).
20. When telling a party that the court will not sustain their position, watch for their lawyer's reaction. If it is quiet and passive, it's probably reinforcing what the lawyer has already told the client.
21. Inform unreasonable people quickly if they will not be successful in court on a point.
22. Start by identifying areas of agreement. This is a good tactic to encourage further agreement. Help avoid distraction by areas of disagreement.
23. Think of contingencies for the future, such as parties moving out of state, visitation when children get older, etc.
24. If the case settles, swear both parties in, have both parties say that they understand and approve of the settlement terms and consider the terms fair and equitable. State which lawyer will prepare the decree, that any judge can sign the decree, and that objections to the form of decree, if any, will be heard by you.
 - Prepare a clear, detailed and complete settlement order
 - When dictating settlement terms, be specific to ensure that the agreement is clear and understandable.
 - If easier, dictate settlement terms as they are reached on each issue (although this may be difficult if parties revise terms).
25. Even if no settlement, encourage parties/attorneys to continue to negotiate. Seeds of settlement can be planted at the conference that result in subsequent agreements.

COMMUNICATION TECHNIQUES FOR SUCCESSFUL NEGOTIATIONS

1. Restatement – The settlement judge listens to what has been said and repeats the content to the party in the party's own words.
2. Paraphrase – The settlement judge listens to what has been said and restates the content to the party using different words that have the same meaning as the original statement. This is often called translation.
3. Active Listening – The settlement judge decodes a spoken message and then feeds back to the speaker. This is commonly used in conciliation.
4. Summarization – The settlement judge condenses the message of a speaker.
5. Expansion – The settlement judge receives a message, expands and elaborates on it, states it back to the listener, and then checks to verify accurate perception.
6. Ordering – The settlement judge helps a speaker organize ideas into a sequence (historical, size, importance, amount, and so forth).
7. Grouping – The settlement judge helps a speaker identify common ideas or issues and combine them into logical units.
8. Structuring – The settlement judge assists a speaker to organize and arrange his or her thoughts and speech into a coherent message.
9. Separation or Fractionating – The settlement judge divides general points or principles in a speaker's component parts.
10. Generalization – The settlement judge identifies general points or principles in a speaker's presentation.
11. Probing Questions – The settlement judge asks questions to encourage a speaker to elaborate on an idea.
12. Questions of Clarification – The settlement judge asks questions to encourage the speaker to give further information about a point in question.

The settlement judge can enhance communication between disputants by encouraging disputants to use communication skills, by teaching disputants how to use them, and by reinforcing their use by commending parties who utilize them.

ESTABLISHING A POSITIVE EMOTIONAL CLIMATE

In addition to facilitating communication, the settlement judge often must create an emotional climate conducive to clear communication and joint problem solving. Interventions related to promoting a positive emotional climate include:

- Preventing interruptions or verbal attacks.
- Encouraging parties to focus on the problem and not each other.
- Translating judgmental language of disputants into less emotionally charged terms.
- Affirming clear descriptions or statements, procedural suggestions, or gestures of good faith while not taking sides on substantive issues.
- Accepting the expression of feelings and being empathetic while not taking sides.
- Reminding parties about behavioral guidelines that they have established.
- Intervening to prevent conflict escalation.
