

General Information Annulment - Without Minor Children

Annulment in Arizona: An annulment in Arizona is a judgment that a marriage is null and void. The annulment legal process requires certain statements to the Court showing reasons the purported marriage is invalid from the beginning, almost as if it had never taken place. You must have a legal reason to file for annulment.

90-day requirement to File for an Annulment in Arizona: You or your spouse must have made Arizona your home or have been stationed in Arizona while a member of the Armed Forces, for at least 90 (ninety) days before you file the Annulment Petition with the Court. If you cannot meet this requirement DO NOT buy these forms and DO NOT file for Annulment at this time.

NOTE: The Arizona statutory definition of annulment (A.R.S. § 25-301) is not the same as annulment defined by certain religions.

Covenant marriage: A covenant marriage in Arizona is a legally distinct kind of marriage in which the marrying couple agrees to obtain pre-marital counseling and accept more strict grounds for divorce. The Arizona Covenant Marriage emphasizes the belief that marriage is more than just a contract between two individuals and requires specific statements of mutual commitment. If you have questions as to whether your marriage is a covenant marriage, look for the words “covenant marriage” on your marriage license, or see an attorney for help. These annulment forms may not be used if you have a covenant marriage.

Domestic Violence: Domestic violence is also known as domestic abuse, spousal abuse, battering, and family violence. Domestic violence can be a pattern of abusive behaviors by one partner against another in an intimate relationship such as marriage, dating, family, or living together. Domestic violence has many forms, including physical aggression or assault (hitting, kicking, biting, shoving, restraining, slapping, throwing objects), or threats thereof; verbal abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse, controlling or domineering behavior, intimidation, stalking, or passive abuse, such as neglect.

Court documents usually request your address and telephone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, you may protect yourself from further violence by protecting your residential address. To do this, get a P.O. Box, or use another address. Also, you must file a “Request for Protected Address” and ask that your address NOT be disclosed on court papers.

Remember: Contact an attorney if you are unsure whether an annulment is right for your situation. You may follow all the correct procedures and get all the way to your court hearing, only to find the judge does not find legal grounds for an annulment. If that happens, you may have to file additional forms for a divorce/dissolution instead. You could save time and money to find legal advice before you begin the annulment paperwork.
