NOTE TO DEFENDANT: Under federal law, certain conditions can cause you to be prohibited from possessing firearms while an Order of Protection is in effect. The conditions are:

(1) You and the plaintiff are either married (past or present), live together as intimate partners (past or present), or are parents of a child in common, and

(2) there is a hearing of which you received actual notice, at which you had an opportunity to participate (even if you fail to attend), and the Order of Protection is affirmed or modified at the hearing.

If you have questions about hearings and state and federal firearms prohibitions, you should contact an attorney. The court cannot give you legal advice.

- Plaintiff. I am the Plaintiff, and I am asking the court:
 - to modify (change) my protective order.
 - to dismiss my protective order.
 - to cancel the hearing set prior to the issuance of the protective order.
 - to continue the hearing scheduled on ___/___/____ (date).

Defendant or Plaintiff, list the reasons for your request or what you would like the court to modify:
