- ✓ You want the court to schedule a trial date.

Print or type using black ink only. Complete all fields and provide required information.

Form: Motion to Set Trial Date and Certificate of Readiness (“Motion to Set”)

1. In the top left corner of the first page, fill in the information about you—the person filing this motion. If you are represented by an attorney, Stop! The attorney must file the motion (and will use his or her own form).
2. Case Caption: Fill in the name of the Petitioner/Party A and Respondent/Party B or Party C and the case number as they appear on the petition that originally started this case. Whoever was the Petitioner/Party A, Respondent/Party B, or Party C for the filing of the original case remains Petitioner/Party A, Respondent/Party B, or Party C for all other papers filed under this case number. Your case number also stays the same for any papers filed in your case.
3. Judge’s Name: Fill in the name of the Judicial Officer (Judge or Commissioner) assigned to your case. If you do not know the name of the judicial officer assigned to your case, call Family Administration at 602-506-1561.
4. Priority for trial. Per Rule 77 of the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure (ARFLP), your case is given preference by the court if it involves legal decision-making or parenting time of minor children. Check the appropriate box if your case is entitled to trial priority in scheduling.
5. Set your case for trial. Add a date at least 60 days from the date of the filing of this motion when your case will be ready for trial.
6. Short case. Some cases can be heard in an hour or less. If a lawyer has told you or you are otherwise fairly certain that your case can be heard in an hour or less, check the box for “yes”; otherwise, check the box for “no” or “not sure.”

7. Estimated length of trial. Indicate how long you think the trial will take. Generally, you may want to request “1 Day” if:

- It is a divorce, paternity, or legal decision-making and parenting time trial,
- If you will be having a lot of witnesses, experts, or
- There is an attorney for the other side.

If there are no witnesses other than you and the other party, and you do not have a lot to tell the judge, you may ask for “2 Hours.” The court will decide how much time to schedule for the trial. If the trial takes longer than the time allowed, the judge can continue the trial to another date and time.

8. Certification of readiness. Put an “X” in this box if discovery has been completed (or there has been enough time and no request for discovery have been made) and your Domestic Relations/Family Court case is ready to proceed to trial. If you have questions about “discovery,” you should ask a lawyer for help or research the local rules and requirements at a law library.

Next step: After you have filled out the motion forms, read and follow the instructions on the Procedures: What to do

Procedures: What to do with the Motion to Set forms after you have filled them out

Follow these procedures if you have filled out the Motion to Set Trial Date and Certificate of Readiness (commonly called “Motion to Set”) and you want a trial to be scheduled in your case.

Step 1: Review the Motion to Set form to make sure it is complete and filled out in black ink. Sign and date the form before you make copies. You may want to wait until the day you file the form before filling in the dates you are planning to mail or deliver the copies as stated on page 3.

Step 2: Make 3* copies of the completed forms:

Set 1 – Originals for Clerk of Superior Court: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Motion to Set	Set 2 – Copies for Judge assigned to your case: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Motion to Set
Set 3 – Copies for Other Party: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Motion to Set	Set 4 – Copies for you (keep for your records): <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Motion to Set

*If there is more than one other party, you will need a copy for each.

If you eFile your forms, you may not need as many paper copies. You will need a paper set of the filed forms to serve on the other party, Division of Child Support Services if they are involved in your case, and one for your judge or Family Administration (when required). For more information about how to eFile your papers, read the eFiling instructions: <https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/media/7448/dref93i.pdf>.

Step 3: File the papers at the court. Take the original and all copies to the Clerk of Superior Court filing counter.

Hand the original and all copies of the Motion to Set to the Clerk of Superior Court where you filed your case. The Clerk will stamp and file the original and return all copies to you. These are now called “conformed” copies to indicate that the copies conform to (appear to be the same as) the original document filed with the court.

- Step 4: Provide a copy to the judge assigned to your case by:
1. Delivering a copy to Family Administration,
 2. Placing it directly in the judge’s “in-basket” in the lobby of the:
 - Northwest Court Facility in Surprise or the
 - Northeast Court at 40th Street and Union Hills in Phoenix, or
 3. By mailing it directly to the assigned judge.

Step 5: Mail one copy to the other party, or if the party is represented by an attorney, to their attorney instead. If there is more than one other party to the case, you will need to mail a copy to each.

Step 6: Wait to receive a notice from the court. After you have filed the Motion to Set, you should be contacted by the office of the judge assigned to your case to inform you of the dates of your Pretrial Conference and Trial. The document you will receive is called a Minute Entry, and it will give you instructions about what to file before the Trial.
